Paroled Murderess Picks Michigan

YORK, Neb. (AP) — Saying she wants only to become part of everyday life and live in obscurity, convicted murderess Caril Ann Fugate won parole Tuesday and apparently will move to Michigan.

By a 4-1 vote, the Nebraska Parole Board granted Miss Fugate's request for freedom after 18 years in prison. The decision was greeted by applause from about 30 persons who attended the parole hearing Tuesday.

"I would just like to say thanks," said Miss Fugate after the decision was read. Tears were in her eyes as she was led quickly from the room at the reformatory where she had served as her home for more than half her life. Miss Fugate, now 32, accompanied mass killer Charles Starkweather on his 1958 spree that left 10 dead and shocked the nation. She will be released June 20 and will apparently be headed for a new life somewhere in Michigan. Starkweather, the last man to die in Nebraska's electric chair, was executed 17 years ago this month.

Miss Fugate told the board she is seeking anonymity. "I do not wish to give interviews today or in the future," said Miss Fugate. "I'd like to just settle down, get married, have a couple kids... just be an ordinary little dumpy housewife." The parole contains a provision prohibiting Miss Fugate from granting interviews or holding news conferences without the written consent of the parole board, a condition she suggested and agreed to before it was announced.

No one showed up to protest the parole. Mrs. Catherine Dahlquist of Omaha, the only woman on the board, cast the dissenting vote, but had no comment for reporters afterwards. In a telephone interview after the decision, Mrs. Robert Jensen, the mother of one of the victims, said, "I don't think that's justice. The victims and their families are given no consideration. It's all to make life better for the murderer."

Parole Board Chairman John Greenholtz surprised reporters when he said Miss Fugate, a former Lincoln resident, will report to a parole officer in St. Joseph, Mich. It was the first indication of where Miss Fugate might be going.

Earlier, parole board sources had said Miss Fugate would assume a new identity, and would live in another Midwestern state. The "new identity" issue became a controversy after Greenholtz' statement.

During the 1958 Starkweather rampage, nine persons were shot or stabbed to death in the Lincoln area. A 10th victim was shot and killed near Douglas, Wyo., before the couple was caught. Starkweather, 19 at the time, later confessed to another unsolved

Carter Elated; Ford, Reagan Still Slugging

By DAVE GOLDBERG
Associated Press Writer

Jimmy Carter, at best an outsider when the primaries began, has capped his run from nowhere with a delegate harvest that puts him within a few quick moves of the Democratic presidential nomination.

For the Republicans, the end of the primaries means a continuation of Ronald Reagan's challenge to President Ford.

Carter won only in Ohio of the three big states that held primaries on Tuesday. But he picked up more than 200 delegates, and all his rivals but one seemed ready to concede him the nomination.

The one who said he won't quit chasing Carter is Jerry Brown, who won big in his home state of California and was joined with Hubert Humphrey as preferred candidates on an uncommitted delegate state that won in New Jersey. "I will go forward," Brown said. "I think the nomination is still open."

Ford and Reagan, meanwhile, fought to a standoff that virtually guarantees a fight to the convention in Kansas City two months from now.

Reagan took the California primary and with it the 167 delegates that go to the winner there. But Ford won almost all of Ohio's 87 delegates and an uncommitted state that swept

Some happy words

New Jersey's 67 delegate spots is packed with the President's supporters.

Here is how the delegate count looks with the primaries over:

Carter, who picked up 218 delegates on Tuesday, now has 1,125 of the 1,505 needed for nomination. His closest pursuer is Rep. Morris K. Udall, who has 334.5. Brown, who won 200 in California, has 225 and a number in the uncommitted bloc of over 900 delegates.

Ford has a lead over Reagan of 892-988, with 1,130 needed to be the nominee. But Ford's edge is actually greater since no more than a handful of the nominally uncommitted 87-member New Jersey delegation backs Reagan.

As the votes were counted Tuesday and even before, it was clear it would be a day for jumping on the Carter bandwagon.

Carter himself told supporters in Atlanta: "I think I'm going to be the nominee."

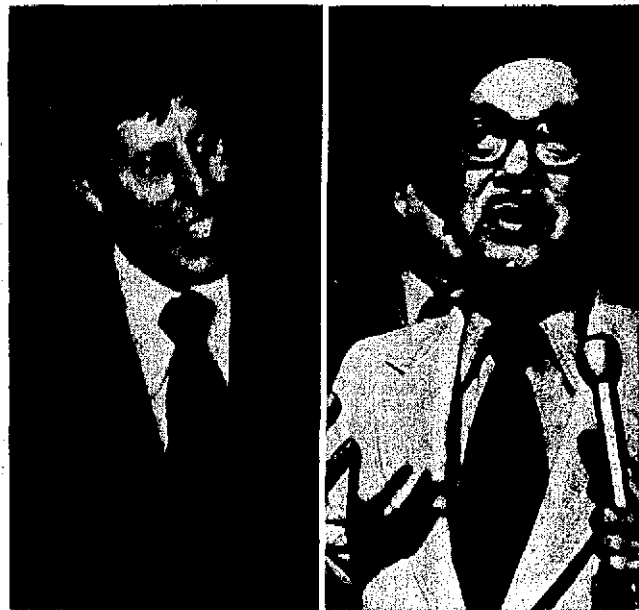

And at a news conference, he said he had spoken by telephone during the day with three active rivals, Udall, Frank Church and George Wallace; one inactive rival, Humphrey, and Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago, who controls a bloc of 86 delegates nominally committed to Sen. Adlai Stevenson, a favorite son.

"All of them, as a general group, agreed that I would be the nominee," Carter said.

And that was what just about all of them said, finally unceasing defeat after a spring of seeing silver linings in cloudy results.

Udall, speaking to supporters in Cleveland after his ninth second-place finish, congratulated Carter on a "solid victory, and a brilliant campaign." He said Carter is now a heavy favorite for the nomination and said he wouldn't engage in a

Hays Renominated Despite Sex Case

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Rep. Wayne Hays, facing a showdown with House colleagues over a payroll-sex scandal, has won renomination to a 15th term in Congress.

The 65-year-old Democrat won Tuesday's Democratic primary over Nick Karnick, a 56-year-old Steubenville court bailiff making his fifth run at Hays.

Karnick's best previous showing against the incumbent was 20 per cent, but with 64 per cent of the vote counted, the challenger had 43 per cent of the total — Hays 20,175, Karnick 14,925.

Hays will face Republican Ralph R. McCoy of Woodfield and William Crabbe, Steubenville's mayor and an independent, in the general election.

Hays retired early to his farm, telling reporters initial returns were gratifying "according to the circumstances and the pressure I have been under."

He planned to return to Washington today to join the House in action on key legislation which forced him to postpone until next week a decision on whether to step down temporarily as chairman of the House Administration Committee. He previously stepped aside as chairman of the House Congressional Campaign Committee which hands out funds to candidates.

He is under investigation by the U.S. Justice Department, a federal grand jury and the House Ethics Committee. They are examining allegations of misuse of federal funds.

Elizabeth Ray, a 33-year-old former member of Hays' staff, has charged he put her on the payroll as his mistress.

Hays has admitted a "personal relationship" with her but denied the allegation of misuse of federal money.

Hays fared poorly as a favorite son presidential candidate in the six congressional districts among Ohio's 23 where he was on the ballot. He did not get a single delegate.

"I'm not guilty of anything except a little damn foolishness. But I'm not going to give up. I'm not going to let you people down," Hays told his constituents before the primary.

Karnick, who did little campaigning, said it was hard for him to make the Ray affair an issue.

"How could you make it an issue?" Karnick asked. "The grand jury, the ethics committee did not call him."

"Where am I going to get the coverage? I'm lucky to get in the comic pages."

Californians Put Faith In N-Power

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California voters, placing their faith in nuclear energy, have firmly rejected the nation's first ballot proposal to restrict the use of nuclear power rather than risk radiation disaster.

Prop. 13, a controversial measure placed on the primary ballot by environmentalists, went down to defeat by a 2-1 margin. Voters appeared unimpressed by dire predictions of the potential for radiation disaster.

In late results, with 54 per cent of precincts reporting, the vote was: yes, 1,066,630 or 33 per cent; no, 2,046,261, or 65 per cent.

The vote in the nation's most populous state was seen as a bellwether of public opinion for at least 10 other states now considering similar proposals. Colorado and Oregon have nuclear safety measures on their November ballots.

The "Yes on 13 Committee," which ran a vigorous campaign for tough safety restrictions, vowed to continue the campaign with fervor.

"The voters responded to the overwhelming number of scientific, educational and political leaders who came out against Prop. 13," said Chuck Winner, campaign manager for "No on 13."

Clergy Gets Little Flak Over Track

THREE OAKS — A proposed horse racing track to be built near Three Oaks has not met with strong public opposition, a small gathering of community leaders have reported.

Arnold Bolin, executive director of the Berrien County Council of Churches, said clergy and elected leaders who gathered here yesterday reported they have encountered "very little expressed opposition," in the track project.

Bolin said eight officials, including four ministers from southwestern Berrien county, Alfred Hellenka, Three Oaks township supervisor, and Roland Oselka, Berrien county commissioner representing the area, met in an informal session at the First Reformed church to give the council an idea of how the people in the Three Oaks area felt about the moral issues of gambling at the proposed Michiana Raceway, Bolin said.

Yesterday's session was called in advance of the regular meeting of the council, to be held Thursday night at the Chapel Hill United Methodist church inodus, Bolin said. As a result of the meeting, Bolin said the council would probably take no stand on the proposed track unless the matter was "raised from the floor" during the Thursday night meeting.

Developers Hanley Dawson Jr. of suburban Chicago and Jerry Smith of Clarkston, Mich., hope to build a $10 million to $15 million track at a site located southwest of Three Oaks off US-12.

The Three Oaks township board has already approved rezoning the 480-acre site to allow construction.

Bolin said the "economic factor" of the proposed track, "is the thing that everyone seems to be looking at."

Township officials have said earlier that the township could receive as much as $630,000 per year from money bet at the track. In addition, the township would receive an estimated $7,500 per year in property taxes and the River Valley school district would receive a projected $280,000 in tax revenue.

The proposed project would include a track for both thoroughbred and harness racing and a horse training and breeding farm.

He's Sentenced For Creaming Teacher

By STEVE SAGER
Staff Writer

A 17-year-old senior at St. Joseph high school was arraigned Tuesday in Berrien Fifth District court on a charge that he sprayed whipping cream in the face of a school librarian.

Pleading guilty to a charge of disorderly person was Craig S. Lerke, 17, of 419 LaSalle avenue, St. Joseph. He was sentenced to one day in jail, fine and costs of $50 and six months probation by District Judge John T. Hammond.

St. Joseph Police Det. Lt. William Mihalik said Lerke was arrested on a warrant yesterday that charged he sprayed whipping cream in the face of librarian Phyllis Woodward on May 24. Mrs. Woodward was in the library at the time.

According to police, a young man dressed in bib overalls and with a ski mask over his head entered the library, tapped Mrs.

Woodward on the shoulder and then sprayed her in the face before fleeing.

Mrs. Woodward was not injured, but had to go home and change clothes. Mihalik said the arrest was made after police investigation.

Mihalik said police are still investigating a similar incident that occurred Monday at the high school when an English teacher was sprayed with whipping cream while administering a test in her classroom. Mihalik said the teacher sprayed was Mrs. Marian Peddle. Mihalik said she was not sprayed in the face, but the whipping cream did get on her clothes and she was forced to go home and change. The incident occurred about 10 a.m. Police said Lerke was not believed involved in the second spraying incident. According to Mihalik, the youth in Monday's incident was wearing a red hooded sweat shirt and sunglasses.

A Great Lady Who

Will Be Missed By All

Professional and amateur musicians by the scores, and parents by the hundreds, are mourning the death of a woman they universally regarded as an outstanding teacher of music and a great human being.

She was Mrs. W. E. (Gertrude) Brown of Benton Harbor, piano teacher who died last week at age 80.

Exemplary of her unflagging support of community music efforts, she had attended only a week before her death the final Benton Harbor High School Band concert of the season.

Her presence "delighted" Guest Conductor Bernhard Kuschel, retired director of the Tiger Band who was being honored for his many years turning out some of the nation's finest high school bands. "After the concert we talked about all the great kids she had sent to my hands. And, you know, not all piano teachers want their students to take up another instrument. It takes time away from piano practice. But she felt the band experience gave her students a fuller grasp of the musical arts. And perhaps even more importantly, she felt that the teamwork required of bandmen made them better citizens."

"Technically, we could tell her students immediately. They were always excellent."

Parents of children who "look piano" from Mrs. Brown are as dedicated to her memory as Bandman Kuschel.

Atty. and Mrs. Patrick Kinney of St. Joseph think that "by instilling in her many students an appreciation for music and a love of learning and accomplishment, Gertrude Brown has left to all of us a legacy that will still be felt generations from now. Through arduous work and counseling, her efforts over a period of some 50 years have served to develop hundreds of young students into talented musicians. As these former students continue to mature and have families of their own, our community will continue to reap the good fortune of having had her as one of its residents. . . . She had a way of finding and bringing out the best in each of us . . . her genuine interest in young people and their ideas kept her ageless."

Probate Judge Zoe Burkholz, a parent whose children also took lessons from Mrs. Brown, commented:

"Gertrude Brown was a motivator of talented young people. Always she urged them to try, to practice, to achieve. She taught them that anything was possible if they worked hard enough. . . . she encouraged, and praised effort, and expressed displeasure when effort was not expended. She gave countless hours in extra practice sessions, telephone calls and genuine assistance to those who responded to her."

"My students are like my own children," she said. "They really are my children! And many depended upon her as their own mother."

"She coached 14 students to Interlochen scholarships and inspired countless others to achieve because they learned how to successfully pursue the goals she and they set."

Mr. and Mrs. James Nettleton who had three children study with Mrs. Brown:

She "set an example for her students in human values and relationships—so effective at it that she maintained this ability into her 80th and final year."

As if it were not enough for Mrs. Brown to have taught thousands of other people's youngsters, she reared three sons of her own. Two are doctors, one a lawyer.

Monday Musical's Mrs. Marjory Fowler, a close friend, recalls that Gertrude "came to Benton Harbor to dedicate the new organ at the Methodist Peace Temple, at which time she met Dr. Brown whom she later married."

Dr. Brown, a one-time mayor of Benton Harbor, preceded her in death by many years. But her spirits never flagged, recalls another friend, Mrs. Marian D. Patton:

"She was a great lady who will be truly missed by young and old alike."

The undersigned ministers of Coloma want you, the people of Coloma, to have accurate information to enable you to own and take responsibility for your Coloma school system. For this reason the Minister's Association . . .

Since then many residents in the Coloma district have received an unsigned circular making reference to those May meetings and opposing the millage increase. We respect the authors freedom to let others know their opinion and reasons. We are deeply disturbed by unwillingness to identify and take responsibility for the accuracy of their interpretation.

After examining this material we believe that it has been issued out of personal grievance against Superintendent Barrett. It has been put together in such a way as to distort the truth by misinterpreting facts which were clearly explained in the May meetings. Personal accusations against Superintendent Barrett reveal the writer's judgment to be influenced by personal feelings which should not enter a public issue as important to so many children as this millage vote will be. This is more like political mud-slinging than reasoned debate.

We believe the charges in this unsigned release have already been answered in the May meetings. Our purpose now is to encourage you to refer to the facts made public there and then vote the way you think will

All the excitement of an old-time presidential election is in the air at St. Joseph high school this week. The cause is the fight against the unveiling of the Crescent society, 32-year-old literary club of St. Joseph high school, and the Student association. Monday afternoon, after a heated discussion, the seniors left the general assembly in a body. The proposed merger of the two societies is being fought strenuously. Not only in the high school, but by the alumni as well. When it was proposed to defer action on the matter until next fall, when the seniors will have graduated, they left the room. The motion passed later.

Ray K. Moulton, former twin city newspaper man, now a famous humorist for the Hearst papers, also sent an opinion on the fight. He wrote to his nephew, Frank Davis, and said that it would not be fair to the graduates to consolidate the two societies.

Humphrey Bill

A Lot Of Pap

WASHINGTON — Sen. Hubert Humphrey's full employment bill, endorsed by so many presidential candidates, is pure political pap as now written.

Its centerpiece is a 3 per cent goal for adult unemployment. We all would admire this. But the goal is meaningless without workable plans for achieving this end. And no one has figured out how to get unemployment down to this level in today's economy, when so many women and youth have entered the labor market, without a war which absorbs into the armed forces and force feeds industry, balloons the national debt and leads inevitably to inflation and a bust.

The conclusion of economists I've been in contact with is that if enacted, and carried out by a president according to the letter of the law, we'd be back to inflation of 10 to 12 per cent in five years.

We'd be saddled, too, with a public jobs program running into so many billions taxpayers would be unable to bear the burden without severe sacrifice.

An analysis by Charles L. Schultze of the Brookings Institution, not normally noted for conservatism, indicates that the wage formula in this proposal's government-as-a-last-resort work program would be considerably higher for low-skill and semi-skilled, labor than wages paid in important segments of American industry — and would thereby create serious labor shortages, stimulating inflation long before the unemployment goals were reached — that is, while unemployment was still high.

As Schultze explains it: "The central problem is that when the overall unemployment rate gets down into the neighborhood of 5 per cent, the job market for experienced prime-age workers becomes very tight. There are many unfilled job vacancies and not many unemployed in this age group. The large number of younger workers do not move in to fill these vacancies. As a consequence, wages are bid up sharply and prices begin to rise, even though the overall unemployment rate is still high."

He says that under the Humphrey bill: an unskilled laborer, earning say $2.50 an hour in private industry, can afford to quit, take unemployment compensation for four to six weeks or so, "then claim a last-resort job" paying $3.50 to $4.50 an hour on municipal wage scales, "and come out way ahead."

The difficulty is, of course, that there are many types of unemployed, and that generalized, simplistic employment programs aren't likely to succeed.

To illustrate the point, Schultze has outlined a typical breakdown of unemployment when the overall unemployment rate is 3 per cent.

Among the 45 to 64 age male group, unemployment would be a low 2.3 per cent. Among males 25 to 44 it wouldn't be much higher at 2.7 per cent. And women 45-64, 3.1 per cent. In other age levels, however, the unemployment rates move up rapidly. For 25-44 age women, 4.9 per cent, for men and women 20-24, 7.3 to 8.4 per cent.

And then there are the teenagers, the 16 to 19-year-olds for whom the Humphrey bill now makes no provision in the last-resort program. For males 16 to 19, the rate hits 13.9 per cent and for women the same ages an astounding 15.2 per cent.

This is a time when the overall employment rate is 5 per cent. And remember that the 16 to 24-year-olds now constitute a fourth of the labor force and would, at the overall 5 per cent employment level, constitute half the unemployed.

But Mr. Humphrey and his friends know that 16 and 17-year-olds can't vote. And that the percentage of the younger workers who vote is extremely low.

Off-The-Cuff

With Big Shots

WASHINGTON — High government officials may pretend otherwise, but not everything that happens in the nation's capital is of cosmic proportions.

Party-going, for instance, is serious business. What is said over martinis at lunch or during a crowded cocktail party is often more revealing of who's doing what to whom here than any number of official statements uttered before microphones.

And brief glimpses of important people doing and saying important — and unimportant — things away from the official limelight can be highly instructive.

Herewith a few such glimpses, selected for no particular reason except they interested me.

ITEM: Jimmy Carter's campaign autobiography was published in paperback last week. Titled "Why Not the Best?" it came out in hardback a year ago, as part of his then-obscure effort to attract attention to his presidential drive.

In those days, Carter was able to interest only two publishers, Random House, and from Broadman, a relatively small Baptist-oriented publisher in Nashville. Most presidential candidates would have opted for the big-time publisher. But not Carter.

Broadman promised to promote the book among the nation's nearly 28 million Baptists, whereas Random House was merely going in to try to sell it to the nation. Carter, being both religious and pragmatic, decided that he had a better chance of reaching a wide audience through the Baptist appeal, and chose Broadman.

Only now, when the country is finally interested in him, is the book going national with a Bantam paperback.

ITEM: Ambassador Corneliu Bodgan of Romania, who is returning home after eight years in the post here, recently tried to explain to reporters his country's resistance to a free press. "Think of our attitude in terms of telegraph poles," he said. "To us, a pole is an edited tree."

ITEM: The congressional delegations which went to England to receive a bicentennial copy of the Magna Carta tried to pretend that it was so preoccupied with the historic exercise (at a cost to the taxpayers of about $200,000) that it had not time to notice Rep. Wayne Hays' fall from grace. Hays was to have accompanied the group, but cancelled when the Elizabeth Ray scandal broke on the eve of the journey.

There was no escaping it, however. Everywhere the group went to lunch and dinner, place cards were set for Hays in front of an empty chair. At one banquet, someone had taken a pen, scratched out Hays' name and scrawled above it, "Ray."

ITEM: Tension in the President Ford Committee is causing temper tantrums and bruised egos. Overspending in the earlier primaries left the committee with a tight budget in order to stay within the legal Federal limits before the August convention. This resulted in staff cutbacks and hard feelings.

Files For High Court

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — State Supreme Court Justice Lawrence B. Lindemer has filed for election to the court post to which he was appointed last year. Lindemer, 54, a longtime Republican party figure, succeeded Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh, who died of cancer. If elected, Lindemer would serve a term lasting until Jan. 1, 1983. Court members are nominally nonpartisan, but usually have undeniable party ties.

Berrien Residents Alerted To Encephalitis Mosquitoes

The Berrien County Health department is urging county residents to take precautionary steps to prevent an outbreak of mosquito-borne St. Louis encephalitis this summer. Last summer, a widespread outbreak of the communicable disease occurred in the Midwest — particularly in Illinois where over 800 cases of St. Louis encephalitis were reported. Jerome A. Erickson, acting health officer for the county health department, said there were 82 cases of St. Louis encephalitis in Michigan last summer with one nonfatal case reported in Berrien county.

Erickson said the disease is transmitted by a particular species of mosquito generally known as the northern house mosquito and technically called "Culex pipiens." The mosquito usually gets infected by biting a bird which is carrying the virus and transmits it to humans by biting them, according to Erickson.

To prevent a widespread outbreak, Erickson said residents should eliminate locations where stagnant water collects and provides a breeding place for mosquitoes. Weeds and vegetation around the home should also be removed and also, around "quiet" including slow-moving streams, ditches and stagnant ponds. V. Harry Adronie, director of environmental health for the county health department, said selected use of insecticides and fuel oil should be done to eliminate the mosquitoes' breeding places and destroy mosquito larvae. Adronie said insecticides should be applied by only licensed and experienced people who have a knowledge of the type of insecticide to use.

In addition, Adronie recommended the use of mosquito repellents while outside during the night hours when the "Culex" mosquito bites. Defective screens should be repaired or replaced in the home. St. Louis encephalitis causes swelling of parts of the brain and spinal cord, Erickson said the symptoms can range from mild to severe, marked by headaches, high fever, stiff neck, mental disturbances, lack of energy, confusion, failure of muscular coordination, difficulty with speech, coma and tremors.

Erickson said the disease was especially serious with infants and the elderly. With the best of care, he said, it causes death in 5 to 10 per cent of the cases. It takes 5 to 15 days from the mosquito bite for symptoms to appear, according to Erickson, and the disease can be diagnosed with a blood test. There is no specific treatment for St. Louis encephalitis, according to Erickson, except to relieve the symptoms. Most cases require hospitalization with intensive care for two to six weeks, he said.

St. Joe High Will Graduate 360 Thursday

The 104th commencement for St. Joseph high school will be held at Dickinson stadium at 8 p.m. Thursday with 360 seniors graduating.

Student speakers will be Kristin Johnson whose address is: "It's Never Too Late!" and Cheryl Gano who has titled her speech, "Our Challenge." Student graduation speakers are selected by a committee of classmates.

Miss Johnson, 18, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Johnson, 4350 Tanglewood Trail. Miss Gano, 19, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gano, 925 Wayne street.

Graduation will follow long established St. Joseph high school tradition. The St. Joseph high school band under the direction of Robert Brown, director, will play the processional and recessional and the national anthem.

Richard M. Kinney, class president, will welcome parents, relatives and guests to the exercises. Richard C. Higgins, principal, will present the class. Ray M. Dunke, president of the board of education, will present diplomas.

Sept. Burton R. Aldrich will introduce Dunke and the members of the board.

The Rev. Charles R. Allen, pastor of Riverview Park Christian church, St. Joseph, will give the invocation and benediction.

Lincoln Chooses Builder Of New $278,000 Hall

By ALAN AREND
Staff Writer

The Lincoln township board last night approved proceeding with plans for constructing a new $278,000 township hall and named Henry Wiatrowski of South Haven, project low bidder, as general contractor.

The board's decision to proceed was based on the recommendation of a citizen's building committee, that included the kitchen area be redesigned to increase the size, and that quarry tile be used rather than vinyl tile in the entrance areas, restrooms, kitchen and hallways.

Some 30 township residents were in attendance last night with several expressing their concern that the $300,000-plus in federal revenue sharing funds set aside for the project might be better used in other areas.

The location of the proposed building was also a topic of discussion, as several residents felt the building should be constructed closer to either Roosevelt or John Beers road. Current plans call for the site to be to the back and northeast of the township library, so it can easily be seen from both roads.

Wiatrowski's low bid of $278,000 came from the second round of bidding on the project this year. In March, the board rejected eight bids which ranged from $87,520 to $197,520, higher than the architect's original estimated price tag of $312,000.

The specifications were then revised to lower costs resulting in the re-bids. Wiatrowski had also submitted the lowest bid in March.

Supervisor Ernest Hauch said the biggest difference in the lower re-bids was due to mechanical and electrical changes. He said he hoped construction could begin as soon as possible.

In other areas during last night's four-hour meeting, the board heard from Charles Baker, 5500 Golden Crest, and Bob Vandercloot, 5581 Caribou trail, representing residents of Echo Ridge and Ponderosa subdivisions who want sewer service. They said a petition drive is underway to secure the necessary 51 per cent of those residents needed to set up a special assessment district to pay for a sanitary sewer collection system in their area, (known as district 4). The board took no action on the matter pending receipt of the petitions from residents.

The board gave its final approval to the preliminary plat for Glenford subdivision No. 2, with the recommendation that acceptance be subject to having an area between lots 52 and 53 deemed a "green belt" area to protect the rights of the owner of lot 11 in neighboring Glenford subdivision No. 1.

Les White, township police administrator, reported that results of hiring additional security guards to patrol the entrances to the Grand Merc area over the past two weekends were good. He said 410 vehicles were turned away from the private property the two weekends. Total cost for the extra help for the two weekends was $1,060. The board approved continuing the extra security on the weekends at all three township Grand Merc entrances in an effort to abate the deluge of off-the-road motor vehicles.

The board approved granting an application for an industrial facilities exemption certificate to Custom Tool & Die corporation, 2355 Marquette Woods road, for a $158,000 project for constructing and equipping a new facility. If approved by the state, the new facility will be taxed at half its normal rate for 12 years.

The firm currently located in Stevensville employs eight people, but plans to employ 18 at the new facility within the next two years.

The board approved entering into a $1,000 contract for one year with the St. Joseph-Lincoln Senior Service Center, Inc. to provide special services and assistance to senior citizens 60 years and older in Lincoln township.

The board approved paying for needed repairs to the Ballidry drain at the request of Carl Gnodtke, Berrien county drain commissioner. No cost estimate was presented. Hauch said the drain needs to be routed for a more free flow.

It was announced that a public hearing on the township's suit against Mid-Michigan Telephone company which seeks to have all township telephone numbers put on Michigan Bell's 428-exchange, instead of Mid-Michigan's Bridgman exchange, will be held in Lansing June 28-29.

BH Mayor's Race Has Four Entries

Four candidates for mayor will be on the ballot Aug. 3 in Benton Harbor's special election to fill recalled city commission seats.

There also will be two candidates each for commissioner-at-large, Third Ward and Second Ward commission seats. Ten candidates filed nominating petitions for the commission posts by the 4 p.m. deadline yesterday at the city clerk's office.

Filing for mayor were James Dudley, 1294 Broadway; Donald Finley, 132 Robbins avenue; Ralph Lhotka, 444 Division street; and Joel Patterson, 258 East Empire avenue.

Candidates who filed for the other commission seats are: Commissioner-at-large —

Winston Minott, 880 Bishop avenue; and Nurval Weiss, 378 Pearl street.

Second Ward commissioner — James McDuffie, 844 Pearl street; and Tommie Parks, 1252 Pearl.

Third Ward commissioner — Michael Govatos, 1093 Superior street; and Nathaniel Robinson, 1259 Bishop.

Of the 10 candidates, three have served previously on the city commission — Minott, Govatos and Lhotka.

Minott was recalled from his Third Ward seat May 18 and is prohibited from running for that post. Acting City Clerk T.J. (Jack) Carter said earlier he had received an opinion from City Atty. K. Morris Gavin that the law doesn't prevent a recalled official from running for another seat.

Four other people who had taken out nominating petitions did not file by the deadline and will not be on the ballot, Carter said. They are Donna Conke, Charles Shepherd, Lon C. Smith Jr., and James Murphy.

The candidates elected Aug. 3 will serve out the unexpired terms of recalled Mayor Charles Joseph and Commissioner-at-large Barbara Hockaby, Third Ward Commissioner Minott and Second Ward Commissioner Shepherd.

That means candidates elected to mayor, commissioner-at-large and Second Ward seats will serve until December, 1979, and the candidate elected to Minott's seat will serve until December, 1977.

DONATION FOR CHILD CARE CENTER: Harry Bulger, member of Lake Michigan Presbyterian Committee on Self-Development of People, presents $1,000 check from organization to Nora Jefferson, executive director of Community Parents, Inc., Child Care center, 736 Pipestone, Benton Harbor. Committee represents Presbyterian churches throughout onstate Michigan and awarded six checks to organizations throughout state that work for self-development. Bulger is member of First Presbyterian church of Benton Harbor. Mrs. Jefferson said money will be used to hire an Aid to Dependent Children recipient and train her as a teacher's aide to be self-supportive. (Staff photo)

BH School Board Changes June Meeting To Monday

The Benton Harbor board of education will hold its regular June meeting next Monday at 6 p.m. in the administration building, 711 East Britain avenue. The meeting is a change from the usual date of the third Monday of each month. The date and hour were advanced to coincide with Monday's school election. Board President E.E. Hendley said interested citizens are invited to join the board in watching the election returns that will start coming in shortly after 8 p.m. A one-mile building maintenance proposal is on the ballot along with two seats on the board of education.

Story Reports Wrong Driver As Ticketed

Rebecca Elaine Stanfill, 1412 Rockledge drive, Benton township, was not ticketed in a two-car accident Monday as reported in The Herald-Palladium Tuesday. Berrien sheriff's officers issued a ticket for failure to stop in an assured, clear distance to the other driver, Toni Lynn Walters, 17, of 3367 Reinhardt drive, Stevensville.

New Officers Assume Duties For Monday Musical

AT ANNUAL MEETING: Program which followed Monday Musical club's annual meeting and luncheon this week at Lake Michigan college was the opera, "The Old Maid And The Thief." The cast included, from left, Robert Schultz who was Bob, Sally Warner, Laetitia, Dee Sykora, Miss Pinkerton, and Susan Campbell, Miss Todd. Carolyn Nickel was accompanist, Joseph Bartz was stage designer and production coordinator, and Ann Ondraka was in charge of costumes. (Staff photos)

Opera Is Hit

By ARLYS DERRICK
Women's Editor

Mrs. Chester J. Byrns became the 35th president of Monday Musical club following this week's annual meeting held at Lake Michigan college. She will head the club's 68th season, continuing a family tradition of love of music and its promotion. She has been associated with both Junior Monday Music club and Senior Music club as well as serving the Monday Musical in other capacities. Her mother, the late Mrs. Frederick Upton, also served the club as president.

An entertaining and professional performance of Gian Carlo Menotti's opera, "The Old Maid And The Thief," provided an outstanding end of the 1975-76 season for the club.

The stellar cast included Susan Campbell as Miss Todd, the old maid, whose home is the setting for the opera; Sally Warner, the maid Laetitia; Dee Sykora, Miss Pinkerton, the busybody visitor, and Robert Schultz as Bob, the "thief" of the title.

The plot involves the attempts of Miss Todd and the maid to keep the "thief" at the Todd home as long as possible as well as their attempts to keep his presence there from Miss Pinkerton and the town authorities.

The professional stage setting by Joe Bartz who was also production coordinator, the charming costumes provided under supervision of Ann Ondraka, and the excellent accompaniment by Carolyn Nickel was all drawn together by the superb direction of Adeline Palmer McColis, producer and musical director. Sung in English and composed in the Italian buffa style, the opera was originally commissioned by NBC for radio and was introduced on April 27, 1939.

Serving with Mrs. Byrns for the 1976-77 season will be Mrs. Richard F. Koch, first vice president; Mrs. John Riffany, second vice president; Mrs. A.G. Preston Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Karl Schlabbach, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Donald Epelheimer, treasurer, and Mrs. Charles Averill, assistant treasurer.

Membership chairman is Mrs. Vern Snyder; librarian-historian, Mrs. John Nye; radio and music week chairman, Mrs. Stephen R. Sizer; and auditions chairman, Mrs. Louis Patton.

Mrs. Robert Bartz and Mrs. Norbert Hinkelman are Sunday club advisors and Mrs. Bernard Kremers and Mrs. Roy Shoemaker, Junior Monday Musical club advisors.

Mrs. Edward Conrad and Mrs. John Stafford will serve as program chairman.

Monday Musical club chorus will join the St. Joseph Municipal band for the July 4 program, "Let Freedom Ring." The program will be presented in the St. Joseph band shell at Lake Front park at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Monday Musical club is a member of the state and national Federation of Music Clubs.

Further information may be secured from county Cooperative Extension Service office.

Hiler-Hindes Vows

Miss Cheryl Hindes and Gary Hiler exchanged wedding vows May 1 at the home of the groom, route 2, Box 246, Watervliet.

Gerald Weiser of the Universal Life church, Kalamazoo, performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hindes, 9091 Territorial road, Benton Harbor, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hiler, route 2, Box 246, Watervliet.

The bride wore a lace and gauze gown designed with a train. A crown of daisies held her shoulder length veil and she carried daisies, yellow roses and baby's breath.

Miss Kathy Rodriguez was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Theresa Hiler, sister of the groom, Miss Debra Rushing and Mrs. William Rodriguez.

Candy Blasse was flower girl. Serving as best man was Don Kieps. Ushers were William Rodriguez, Bruce Hiler, brother of the groom, and Frank Simonton.

A reception was held at the Watervliet Knights of Columbus Hall.

The couple reside at route 2, Box 358, County Line road, Watervliet.

The bride is a student at Watervliet high school. Her husband is a graduate of Watervliet high school and attended Lake Michigan college and Western Michigan university. He is engaged in farming with his father.

Buy Old Models

When buying a major appliance you can get the best buy for your money by getting last year's model.

Unless there has been some energy and money saving feature added to it, it will serve just as well. Don't bother with high priced, little needed gimmicks. A five speed blender will do the job just as well as a 15 speed model.

Get a good basic serviceable model of whatever you buy. You'll save money and won't need an engineer to tell you how to operate it. You'll have less repair bills with the basic models also, less things to go wrong.

Final Registration For Theatre Workshop

Final registration will be held Monday, June 14, at 6:30 p.m. at Lakeshore high school auditorium for area residents wishing to participate in the Lakeshore public school's summer theatre workshop.

The registration fee of $5 may be paid June 14.

Tryouts will be held that same evening beginning at 7 o'clock for the "King and I" and for "West Side Story."

All rehearsals will be held each night Monday through Friday.

The "King and I" will be presented July 9, 10, 16 and 17. A large number of children are needed for this production and the registration fee for children will be waived for this production.

The musical, "West Side Story," tells the story of two New York gangs in conflict, and will be presented Aug. 6, 7, 13 and 14.

Both productions will be presented in the Lakeshore high school auditorium.

Save Nails From Tennis

Tennis and paddle tennis continue to gain new devotees. Women tennis players can save their fingernails by keeping them shorter than normal. Apply a base coat and top coat over the nails and nail edges; even though you usually don't wear nail polish. These measures help keep nails from splitting and breaking.

Award Given

MADRIGAL SCHOLARSHIP: Gayle Cuthbert, right, Benton Harbor high school junior, is the winner of the first Shaune Mammia Memorial Madrigal Scholarship Award. The scholarship will allow Miss Cuthbert to attend an intensive two-week music study at Michigan State university. Carol C. Eckert, representative of Farmers & Merchants bank, presents plaque with Miss Cuthbert's name engraved. Plaque was donated by F&M Fairplain branch and other bank employees and will list all award winners and remain in the Benton Harbor high school choir room. Scholarship funds were raised by the Benton Harbor high school Choral Parent Organization. Miss Cuthbert has been a member of Concert choir and Madrigals for two years and studies voice privately with Myrth Kremers.

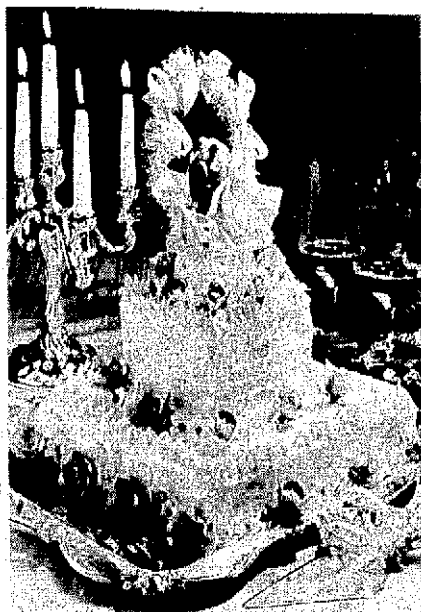

The center of Ohio's wine industry is at Sandusky, which is located at the southern shore of Lake Erie. The district stretches from Port Clinton in the west to Vermilion in the east, and includes the Bass Islands off the lake shore. The predominant grape is the catawba but the concord and some hybrids are also used. The largest company is Melers, who make a wide variety of wines ranging from still wines to vermouths, sparkling and dessert wines. Other companies worthy of note are Engels, Krudwig, and George Lanz.

Whether your personal wine tastes lean toward domestic or imported vintages come by RITTER'S LIQUOR LOCKER, 3872 Red Arrow Hwy., 429-4921 and see our outstanding selection. We also carry all the popular whiskeys, brandies, cordials and liquors as well as beer. Ample free parking. Open: Sat. 10 am-11 pm, Sun. noon-8 pm.

WINE WISDOM:
When you are buying large amounts of wine, remember that a parcel consists of three or four dozen bottles so you need to have somewhere to store that amount.

Traditional

WEDDING CAKE

Economy being the watchword, many young couples today are finding the large catered wedding an unnecessary and expensive extravagance.

More intimate receptions held in church parlors or private homes are becoming increasingly popular. Buffet lunches can be planned which are simple to prepare and recently some economists have designed a wedding cake that is perfect for such an occasion. It's a spectacular cake that can be prepared with a minimum of effort and skill and looks very professional.

The cake begins with four frozen white layer cakes which are arranged to form a large square on a serving platter, preferably a handsome sterling silver one that repeats the cake's square shape. Then two additional cakes are stacked in the center, one on top of the other, to form a second tier.

The already-frosted cakes need only a slight touch up with a wet knife or spatula to spread the frosting over the seams where the cakes are joined. Additional frosting, the convenient canned variety, is used in pipe rosettes around the edges of the cake layers.

At this stage the cake should be chilled until the final decorations are added just before serving. These are a decorative wedding ornament at the top and garlands of flowers, fresh or dried, around the top of each cake layer and at the base. Tuck in sprigs of fern or other greenery among the flowers at the base and the cake is ready to be the highlight of the wedding buffet.

WEDDING CAKE

- Six frozen white layer cakes
- One can (sixteen and one-half ounces) vanilla frosting
- One teaspoon rum flavoring
- Wedding ornament (your own ready made)
- Artificial or fresh flowers

Place four of the cakes while frozen in a square on a sixteen-inch square serving platter or other flat surface. Place remaining two cakes, one on top of the other, in the center of the cake square. Allow frosting to thaw slightly. With a wet knife or spatula smooth all seams of cake to conceal joinings. In a bowl, mix frosting and rum. Place mixture in a pastry bag fitted with a star tip. Press rosettes of frosting to form a continuous row on edge of both cake layers. Chill until ready to serve.

Press wedding ornament on top of cake and, if desired, press rosettes around bottom of ornament. Decorate cake layers and base with flowers. Makes 80 portions.

Commemorate National Holiday

Flag Day Is June 14

Since 1949, when Congress recognized June 14th as Flag Day, ceremonies have been held all over America to honor our national flag.

June 14th was selected in commemoration of the anniversary of that date in 1777 when the Continental Congress adopted the first official national flag.

The Flag Day cake is made from two rich chocolate and vanilla cakes baked in individual nine-by-thirteen inch cake pans. Slice each cake into two layers and alternate layers to resemble the stripes of a flag. When finished, the cake will be a four-layer cake covered with a creamy white frosting topped with semi-sweet real chocolate morsels to resemble the stars of the flag.

With the Bicentennial in full swing, join in the celebration by making your family this delicious tasting Flag Day cake.

YELLOW CAKE LAYERS

Two and one-fourth cups unsifted flour

One teaspoon baking soda

Three-fourths teaspoon salt

Three-fourths cup butter, softened

One and three-fourths cups sugar

One teaspoon vanilla extract

Three eggs

One cup water

One teaspoon lemon rind, optional

CHOCOLATE CAKE LAYERS

One six-ounce package (one cup) semi-sweet chocolate chips

Two and one-fourth cups unsifted flour

One teaspoon baking soda

Three-fourths teaspoon salt

Three-fourths cup butter, softened

One and three-fourths cups sugar

- sugar
- One teaspoon vanilla extract
- Three eggs
- One cup water

ASSEMBLY

One twelve-ounce jar strawberry preserves

One-half of a six-ounce (one-half cup) semi-sweet chocolate chips

CREAM CHEESE FROSTING

Four three-ounce packages cream cheese, salted

Five teaspoons milk

One teaspoon lemon extract

Nine cups sifted confectioners' sugar

YELLOW CAKE LAYERS:

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. In small bowl, combine flour, baking soda and salt; set aside.

In large bowl, combine butter, sugar and vanilla extract; beat until creamy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Gradually blend in flour mixture alternately with water. Stir in lemon rind, if desired. Pour into greased and floured thirteen-by-nine-by-two inch baking pan. Bake at 375 degrees.

Remove from pan; cool on wire rack. Split in half to form two layers.

CHOCOLATE CAKE LAYERS:

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Melt over hot (not boiling) water, semi-sweet chocolate chips; remove from heat and set aside. Repeat procedure for preparing Yellow Cake Layers. Omit lemon rind and blend in melted chocolate. Pour into greased and floured thirteen-by-nine-by-two inch baking pan. Bake at 375 degrees.

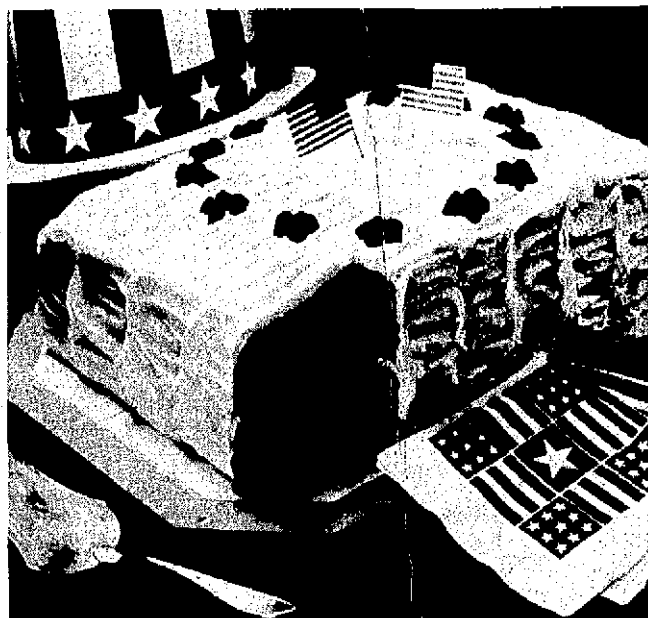

Remove from pan; cool on wire rack. Split cake in half to form two layers.

ASSEMBLY:

In small saucepan, heat strawberry preserves slightly (until it's a good spreading consistency). Place one yellow layer on serving plate; spread top with half of preserves. Top with chocolate layer; spread top with remaining preserves. Top with chocolate layer. Frost sides and top with Cream Cheese Frosting. Decorate top with semi-sweet chocolate chips to resemble stars in colonial flag. To make each star, stick one morsel in cake for center of star and turn other morsels on their sides, facing out for each point of the star. Makes three dozen servings.

CREAM CHEESE FROSTING:

In large bowl, combine cream cheese, milk and lemon extract; beat until creamy. Gradually blend in confectioners' sugar. Makes four cups.

Tastes Fine Either Way

Everybody knows about Gouda cheese — that nut-like flavor and the smooth creamy texture, all wrapped in a bright red wax covering. But did you know that it should be pronounced as though there were an "H" in front of the "G"?

Most of us just say Gouda, or even good Gouda, and it tastes fine either way.

'Put Up' Old-Time Conserve

This is the time of year, before summer's full quota of fruit appears in abundance, to consider "putting up" an old-fashioned conserve made with fresh rhubarb and canned pineapple. It's a delicious spread for toast, biscuits, muffins and other hot breads.

RHUBARB-PINEAPPLE CONSERVE

Four cups sliced (one-inch pieces) rhubarb, about one and one-half pounds

Twenty-ounce can crushed pineapple, drained

One and one-half cups sugar

Three-fourths cup light corn syrup

One tablespoon coarsely grated orange rind

One-fourth cup orange juice

One-half cup coarsely chopped walnuts

In a heavy five-quart saucepot stir together the rhubarb, pineapple, sugar, corn syrup, orange rind and orange juice. Cook over low heat, stirring often, until sugar is dissolved. Increase heat and boil, stirring often, until thick — about 45 minutes; temperature, if tested with a candy thermometer, should reach 220 degrees. Stir in walnuts.

Ladle into clean, hot, dry half-pint wide-mouth jars leaving one-fourth-inch headspace. Wipe top edge of jars with a damp cloth. Seal according to jar manufacturer's directions.

Process in a boiling water bath for ten minutes after boiling temperature is reached. Remove and cool on a wire rack or a folded towel. Label, date and store in a cool, dry place. For best flavor, use within one year.

Makes five one-half-pint jars.

Choice Edibles From Thirteen Colonies

The luscious fragrance that rose from Colonial kitchens is a memory that modern folk only read about. You can almost smell the mingling aromas today as you scan the carefully researched book "The Thirteen Colonies Cookbook," written by four women about the choice edibles from each of the original thirteen colonies.

An appetizing mass of serious research produced recipes from the great and lesser homes of the 18th century, biographies of prominent, interesting women, all of them among the best cooks of their time.

The book was written by Mary Donovan, Amy Hattrick, Frances Mills and Elizabeth Shul.

A statement of Washington's household expenses during three months of the year 1789 may be taken to show the dishes that appeared on the tables of that day. Among its items were butcher's meat, bacon, tongue, geese, ducks, turkeys, chickens, birds, scale fish, lobsters, crabs, oysters, cured fish, eggs, cheese, bread, biscuit, cake, vegetables, butter, ice cream, preserves, fruit, melons, nuts, citrons and honey.

The wine list included Madeira, Claret, Champagne, cherry, arrack, spirits, brandy, cordials, porter, beer and cider. Among these, the item for Madeira was the largest, that for beer being next in amount. The teas which he used were hyson and bohea, the expenditure for both of them being less than that for coffee.

Another example is the Fourth of July reception at the Executive Mansion in Philadelphia:

On July 4, 1776 John Adams said to his wife Abigail, "This day will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations from one end of the continent to the other, from this time forward forevermore."

The food served was:

Current Pound Cake — Massachusetts

Hickory Cake — Pennsylvania

Citron Tarts — North Carolina

Carrot Tea Cake — New Jersey

Soft Molasses Cakes — Connecticut

Old Portsmouth Orange Cake — New Hampshire

Coconut Jumbles — Delaware

Kisses for a Slack Oven — South Carolina

Hospitality Thins — Georgia

Little Sugar Cakes — Maryland

Charlottes — New York

Leimon Tea Cakes — Virginia

Raspberry Shrub — Massachusetts

Toed Claret Sangaree — Maryland

Dr. Salmon's Punch — Rhode Island

Madeira — Rum Tea Punch — Port — Massachusetts.

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

Test Of Compulsive Gambler

Dear Ann Landers: I am a compulsive gambler and a member of Gamblers Anonymous. I read about this wonderful group in your column eight years ago, went to a meeting and have not gambled a penny's worth since.

Please tell your readers again about Gamblers Anonymous, Ann. It is a unique fellowship of men and women who share their experiences and their strength in an effort to solve a common problem. It costs nothing to join.

The only requirement is the desire to quit gambling. How does one tell if he is a compulsive gambler? Here is a list of 20 questions. Anyone who answers yes to seven or more of these questions has a serious gambling problem.

I hope you will print my letter, Ann. Millions of people need help, and they don't know what to do or where to turn. You can tell them.

1. Do you lose time from work due to gambling?
2. Is gambling making your home life unhappy?
3. Is gambling affecting your reputation?
4. Have you ever felt remorse after gambling?
5. Do you ever gamble in the hope you will win some money so you can pay your debts or solve other financial difficulties?
6. Does gambling keep you out late at night and prevent you from performing efficiently on the job the next day?
7. After losing do you feel you must return as soon as possible and win back your losses?
8. After a win do you have a strong urge to return and win more?
9. Do you often gamble until your last dollar is gone?
10. Do you ever borrow money to finance your gambling?
11. Have you ever sold any personal property to finance losses?
12. Are you reluctant to use gambling money for normal expenditures?
13. Do you ever lie about your losses?
14. Do you ever gamble longer than you had planned because you just can't stop?
15. Do you ever gamble to take your mind off your problems?
16. Have you ever committed, or considered committing, an illegal act to finance gambling?
17. Does gambling cause you to have difficulty in sleeping?
18. Do arguments, disappointments or frustrations create within you a compulsion to gamble?
19. Do you have an urge to celebrate good fortune by a few hours of gambling?
20. Have you ever considered suicide as a result of your gambling?

I repeat, anyone who answers yes to seven or more questions needs Gamblers Anonymous. Sign me — Sam G. (Chicago)

Dear Sam G.: May I add a word? Any reader who flunks this test (or is married to someone who flunks it) is invited to write to the National Headquarters of Gamblers Anonymous, P.O. Box 17173, Los Angeles, Calif. 90017, for information on how to join your local chapter.

This group has performed miracles and changed thousands of lives. It has my solid backing. — Ann Landers

Dr. Lester Coleman

Is there any hope on the horizon that diabetes may be prevented? Although I do not have the disease, there are some cases of it in the family. I'm thinking more about our children and grandchildren.

Mrs. J.L., Ohio

Dear Mrs. L.: Despite the remarkable contributions already made, scientists in laboratories and hospitals all over the world are working to uncover more of the mysteries of this complex disease.

One of the most exciting developments in research is the suspicion that a virus may play a role in the production of some cases of diabetes.

If this is true, then the next step is the production of a vaccine to prevent the disease.

An interesting observation occurred which suggests that some children may be more susceptible than others to the speculative viral infection.

Now a group of other scientists is trying to track down the factors that would make one person more susceptible than another.

The new science of immunology may yet find those people who are more susceptible than others and then, with vaccination, prevent the onset of this disorder.

The American Diabetes Association contributes to these research programs. Support of this dedicated organization will further the scientific progress leading to the prevention and control of diabetes.

Are sulfa drugs the same as antibiotics? If someone is allergic to penicillin can a sulfa drug be substituted? — Mrs. V.K. Mass.

Dear Mrs. K.: The sulfa drugs and the antibiotics are both used to combat infections caused by germs (bacteria).

Antibiotics are produced in a complicated way from bacteria themselves. They can also be produced from molds and fungi.

The sulfa drugs are synthetically manufactured chemicals.

When an allergy or sensitivity to penicillin occurs, there are innumerable other antibiotics that can be substituted. The sulfa drugs are used to combat specific infections.

The choice of an antibiotic or a sulfa drug depends on the clinical judgment of the physician, on cultures and on microscopic study of the offending germ.

Free Films Friday

Area youngsters may view four free films Friday, June 11, at 4 p.m. in the Benton Harbor public library auditorium.

These will include "Anatole," a cartoon about a French mouse named Anatole; "Anatole and the Piano," the story of Anatole playing the piano at Mouse Concert hall; "Little Mermaid," an animated tale of unselfish love; and "Story," a film showing a brother and sister on a walk through the forest where they converse with the animals.

Children ages 6-14 may still sign up this week for the 1976 summer reading program.

New books added to the library's junior department include "Survival At Valley Forge," Carole Charles; "Stan Smith's Guide to Better Tennis," Larry Sheehan, and "Money-Making Ideas" and "Make-Up and Costumes," Cameron Yarian.

Schedule Parent Series

DOVAGIAC — Joys of Parenthood will begin its next series of parent discussion groups Monday, June 14, at 7:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist church, Dowagiac.

The six 1½ hour sessions will be led by Ron Latourette.

The group will be limited to 12 persons. Both mothers and fathers are invited. Persons may register by contacting Latourette, Dowagiac. There is no charge.

Topics of discussion will be determined by the needs and desires of the participants.

Joys of Parenthood is a non-profit, volunteer childbirth and parent education association which serves southwestern Michigan.

Coloma Story Hour

COLOMA — Story hour at the Coloma public library will begin Wednesday, June 16, and continue each Wednesday from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Children ages three to eight are eligible.

Puppets and a flannel board will be used along with stories and recitals.

Bicentennial reading will be the theme of a summer reading program for first through sixth graders beginning June 14.

The library is also offering a service for shut-ins or anyone unable to get to the library. Volunteers will deliver and pick up books, records or cassettes. The service is part of a Bicentennial project.

Sunshine Boys

When the great humorists of our times are recorded, there is no doubt in my mind that the Wright Brothers will lead the list.

These Sunshine Boys of the sky refined humor. They bypassed the one-liners, eliminated the pie-in-the-face routine, and replaced the scantily-clad assistant with one prop: a plane.

They got their 12-second act together in 1903, and played Kittyhawk, N.C., before bringing it into New York. Hardly anyone laughed.

It wasn't until 1905 they got their first big break. They performed for the United States government who thought the routine had possibilities, but that before the public would accept it, it had to be punched up with lines.

Orville and Wilbur talked about it.

"Let's go over it again, Orv, we're talking safety and comfort in flying, right? Okay, so in the lobby, just before you get to board the plane, we'll have a counter to sell insurance."

"It's got possibilities, Wilbur, go on."

"Then, a little farther down, we'll have a security check to make sure no one with guns is boarding."

"I like it! I like it! Then when they're on board, we'll strap them in and a cule hostess will appear and..."

"I thought we weren't going to have the scantily-clad assistant. They always remind me of a magic act."

"What are you talking about, Wilb, this whole thing is a magic act if we can pull it off. Anyway, she can stand there and tell them where the oxygen is when they can't breathe."

"You sure that's funny, Orville?"

"They'll love it, and if the plane is going over water, she'll demonstrate a life preserver."

"How about a whoope cushion that floats? We'll call it a flotation pillow and get this, Orville, no one knows what a flotation pillow is!"

"Hey, here's something else. After we tell them how safe it is, we'll put a bag in the pocket telling them how to throw up in two languages: English and Spanish."

"Stop it, Orville, you're cracking me up."

"And we'll have restrooms that no one can stand up in and give the pilot lines like, 'For those of you on the left-hand side of your plane' when everyone is sitting on the right side..."

Yep. Somehow I can just see Orville and Wilbur Wright on a celestial bike path looking down and saying, "The idiots bought it!"

dummy's king.

When West followed to that least Sandy paused to try to construct the West hand and finally decided that he would not have made that silly two-diamond bid with 4-4-3-2 distribution. Therefore, he was marked with a 5-4-3-1 hand and had already played his one club.

So Sandy led dummy's eight of clubs and let it ride for a successful double finesse. One more club finesse and the contract was home.

House Holds Fate Of Detroit Aid Bill

By MALCOLM JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The state House was to get a final chance today to enact a controversial bill containing $27.2 million for Detroit's cultural, health and transportation facilities.

The Senate voted 21-11 Tuesday for the measure, which also contains $800,000 for the Pontiac Stadium. Until then, the Senate had balked at approving a bill containing the two issues.

The House, however, has been unable to approve the Detroit aid package alone. House leaders are counting on the yearly stadium subsidy to attract enough votes to pass the package.

The Senate also approved a consumer-oriented measure requiring individual price markings on store merchandise.

The Detroit aid bill is part of an agreement between Gov. William Milliken and Detroit Mayor Coleman Young on how to help the city avert a budget crisis. The legislature has already authorized the city to levy a three-mill garbage tax, to pick up another $15 million. In return, the city has cut its own budget by some $46 million and laid off hundreds of workers.

The aid bill contains money for Detroit General Hospital, the city's library, art museum and historical museum, the Detroit bus system, and its health laboratories and Department of Health.

In other action, the Senate voted 20-8 — the minimum vote needed — and sent to the governor a bill requiring retailers to put price tags on virtually everything in their stores.

The bill is the result of the move toward computerized check-out facilities at major chain stores, especially supermarkets. Under the system, a special code is read by a computer scanner which tallies the bill.

Consumers groups have argued that shoppers want readable prices so they know how much each item is and can comparison shop. Opponents say that requiring price markings will nullify some of the cost savings of the computerized system. The bill does exempt certain goods from individual marking.

The bill also is aimed at deceptive advertising. It requires retailers to disclose in their ads how long the item will be available or the number of items available at the advertised price.

The House, meanwhile, approved a bill providing free tuition for Michigan's Indians and sent it to the Senate. The bill is a product of a House-Senate conference committee, which was called upon to iron out differences between the chambers on the measure.

Syrian Outlook Worries U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is increasingly apprehensive over the disintegrating military outlook in Lebanon and is worried that Syria will not be able to control the situation resulting from its invasion of the war-torn nation.

Syria has sent 3,000 new troops into Lebanon since the weekend, increasing its total force there to just under 10,000. U.S. officials attribute the jump to the failure of the original contingent to restore order between warring Lebanese Christian and Muslim factions.

However, a ranking State Department official says Syrian troops have had their noses bloodied by the Muslim leftists in the fighting over the past day or two in spite of the reinforcements and the use of tanks and air power.

This means that Syria now faces a serious loss of face unless it overcomes the opposition. The U.S. sources say Syrian President Hafez Assad is therefore more likely to get drawn deeper into the situation.

The officials add that Syria did not inform the United States in advance of its troop increase and has not told Washington of its final intentions in Lebanon.

They say they have no clear idea of what Syria is doing with its large-scale intervention, although one policy maker said he tends to believe that Assad means it when he asserts his troops will withdraw once a cease-fire is operational and political stability is achieved.

Other sources believe Assad has intervened in order to install a government in Beirut that will be friendly to him and offset radical Arab forces that he cannot control.

The very fact that there are so many opinions by American experts exemplifies the uncertainty in Washington and underlines the lack of solid information available to policy makers.

It is this confusion that has created apprehension in U.S. circles and has led officials to back away from their cautious optimism of a week ago.

They deny that the United States ever approved Syria's intervention, either directly or tacitly.

State Department spokesman Fred Z. Brown on Tuesday repeated that the United States opposes any partition of Lebanon and supports the territorial integrity and political sovereignty of Lebanon.

Bail Ban Ready For Final Vote

By MARY STEVENSON
Associated Press Writer
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — After some name-calling and wrangling, the House has moved a proposal banning bail for certain ex-convicts into position for a final vote.

House leaders said the proposed constitutional amendment sponsored by Rep. Paul Rosenbaum, D-Battle Creek, could be voted on today. It requires a two-thirds vote in the House and Senate and voter approval in November.

The proposal, opposed by the State Bar of Michigan, also allows a judge to deny bail to persons indicted or arraigned on charges of certain crimes carrying maximum life sentences unless the evidence shows those people will not be a threat to society while out on bail.

The measure as it stands now, after several changes made on the House floor, would deny bail to persons:

—Charged with a felony punishable by a maximum five years to life who within the last 15 years were convicted of three or more felonies.

—Indicted or arraigned on charges of first-degree murder, treason, criminal sexual conduct, armed robbery or kidnapping with intent to extort, unless it can be shown they will not endanger the community.

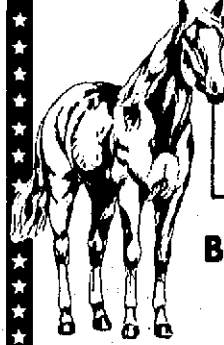

Originally the measure required that bail be denied to these people, but was amended by Rep. Dennis Cawthorne, R-Manistee, to give judges some discretion.

—Who while on bail, probation or parole as the result of a prior felony conviction are indicted or arraigned on a felony charge.

The State Bar of Michigan has opposed the measure on grounds it takes away the judge's power to decide whether to grant bail and interferes with the constitutional principle that defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty.

But Rosenbaum said the measure will get the "one quarter of one per cent of the criminal population" that are habitual offenders off the streets and make communities safer.

Board Hopefuls Split On Millage

By STEVE SAGER
Staff Writer

Three candidates for the Benton Harbor board of education said last night they favor a 1-poll building maintenance tax on the June 14 ballot while two other candidates expressed opposition.

The five candidates were present at a meeting sponsored by the Benton Harbor-St. Joseph Area League of Women Voters in the Benton Harbor public library. Two other candidates, both incumbents, were not present, but Frank Culby and Phillip McDonald, have said previously they support the 1-mill tax. Two board seats are on the June 14 ballot.

Candidates who said last night they support the millage were Arthur Crump, Mrs. Mary DeFoe and Mrs. Nora Jefferson. Opposition was voiced by Richard Coone and Dr. Otto Sardi.

Contacted by The Herald-Palladium last night, Culby said he could not attend because he was at baseball practice for the Peanot league baseball team he coaches. McDonald said he had to attend a church meeting.

Crump, dean of students and former basketball coach at Lake Michigan college, said he was in favor of the millage increase because he wouldn't want a child in a school where the boiler didn't work or where the floor might cave in.

Dazzling Hall

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Museum of Natural History plans to open its new Hall of Minerals and Gems May 21. It says nine world-famous diamonds totaling nearly 1,000 carats in weight will be on display.

BH BOARD CANDIDATES: Five candidates for Benton Harbor school board spoke at "Meet the Candidates" program last night at Benton Harbor public library. of having once been a teacher and being an administrator. He said he was entering the race because he'd heard a lot of criticism about education in Benton Harbor and added, "Criticism about education bothers me because it's my profession."

Mrs. DeFoe, a former senior planner for the Benton Harbor-Benton township Model Cities program and an active member of the NAACP, said she also supported the millage and added that she had visited many of the Benton Harbor Area schools and noted poor conditions.

Mrs. DeFoe also said if cutbacks were necessary in the school system due to a financial crunch she would be in favor of reductions in the top administrative staff first. She added that teachers are often the first to be let go during a financial crisis and said, "We need the teachers."

Mrs. Nora Jefferson, executive director of the Community Parents Inc. Child Care Center, Benton Harbor, also supported the millage. She said,

"Regardless of how the schools got the way they did, they need to be fixed, but we must make sure the money is used for maintenance."

Mrs. Jefferson, in stating her reasons for running, said she has one daughter who is entering the Benton Harbor school system in the fall. She said, "I'm concerned about her education and the education of her classmates." She added, "I'm concerned about my community and the schools are a big part of the community."

Richard Coone, a technician at Heath Co., St. Joseph, opposed the millage increase. He said, "Most of the conditions (of the schools) came from neglect. Money was there a few years ago for the repairs and nothing was done."

Coone said he would also make cutbacks, if necessary, in the area of administrative costs. He noted that some school administrators who are making $30-$35,000 a year are receiving gasoline mileage money. He said, "To my way of thinking, someone making that kind of money doesn't need mileage money."

Sardi, who holds a Ph.D. and is a self-employed consultant in refractology, mineralogy and geochemistry, said he was not totally opposed to the millage proposal, but would not support it on June 14 because of the "psychology" used by the board in trying to get it passed.

It will be the second time the millage proposition will be voted on within three months, and Sardi said the issue is being forced on the voters. He said, "People would vote for the millage if they could see improvement in the educational system. They need to see something positive, not just demands."

In another area, Sardi said teachers need more backing from administrators when there are disputes with students and it is proven that the teacher was not at fault.

The meeting was attended by 20-25 people. Mrs. Robert (Nancy) Strasburg acted as moderator.

Federal Pot Divvied Up In Allegan

ALLEGAN — Allegan county commissioners yesterday approved a $302,521 federal revenue sharing budget.

The largest share of the funds, $104,337, was set aside for county building improvements and equipment. The road commission was given $75,000 and $37,000 was allocated for transportation equipment for the sheriff's department and for a transportation program for senior citizens and the handicapped.

The county clerk's office also got $33,000 for computer rent and supplies and $20,000 was set aside for a soil mapping project proposed by the county planning commission.

The six-year-old medical care facility was allocated $15,000 for building repairs with smaller amounts going to departments with specific requests.

In other action, commissioners voted to take over payment of county employees' share of county retirement.

The amount will be equivalent to 4 1/2 per cent of gross salaries paid, or about $40,000 yearly, but will save the county money in the long run, commissioners were told.

Previously, employees who had contributed funds to the retirement, but left before being vested in the program were able to withdraw what they had paid into the program.

Now, commissioners said, such employees will not be able to withdraw the county-paid employee share if they leave before being vested.

Also yesterday, the board accepted the low bid of $20,853 from Rex Hays Chevrolet and Oldsmobile of Allegan on three standard police cars, an unmarked car and a station wagon. It was the lowest of two bids.

The board's county services committee was directed to make a study of all factors involved in the suggested linking of the county building and jail by an underground tunnel, which could also be used to join the heating systems of the two buildings.

The commission is to meet again Tuesday, June 22, at 8:15 p.m.

Cass Extends Youth Bureau's Life

CASSOPOLIS — The Cass county board of commissioners yesterday extended on a restricted basis the life of the county's Youth Services bureau for another six months.

The board voted to allocate $7,000 to keep the bureau running until Dec. 31. Its current $41,000 budget from federal, state and county funds is to run out June 30.

The extension will provide salary only for Linda Hultquist, eliminating a second counselor and any administrative help for the youth guidance and referral agency.

In a related matter, the board voted to provide office space for the bureau, along with the Cass county Council on Aging in a house adjacent to the courthouse, at York and Rowland streets.

In other areas, the board refused to give an $85,000 contract to Design House of Farmington Hills, Mich., for selection of beds, equipment and decorations for the new medical care center now under construction.

Commissioner Charles Sarabyn of Dowagiac, the board's finance committee chairman, said a project of that size should be put out for bids.

Commissioner Robert Powers of Marcellus had urged hiring the firm because it had been recommended by Davenport Associates, the architectural firm that designed plans for the $2,437,235 extended care unit.

Powers, chairman of the board's medical facility building committee, said he does not have the time to pick out equipment.

Sarabyn said the architectural firm, which is being paid $150,000 for its work, should also select equipment and decorations.

The 78-bed facility is due for completion in July, 1977.

Also yesterday, the board: — Awarded without taking bids the $2,200 contract for a new five-ton air conditioning unit at the jail to Steel Refrigeration of Jones.

— Took no action on a request by Sheriff James Northrop that the county pay for prisoner meals be raised from $1.05 to $1.15 per prisoner per meal.

— Learned a sex discrimination suit has been filed against the county board by Jill Vanderbush, a former assistant juvenile probation officer who claims she had as many qualifications but was hired for less than a man in the department. She wants $126 in compensation. Commissioners refused to pay.

— Allocated $5,000 for three more months operations of the sheriff's narcotics unit with the understanding that those employed in the unit be phased out.

— Set the dedication ceremonies for the new courthouse addition for July 25.

ONE OF NATION'S BIGGEST

Three Oaks To Hail Flag Day

THREE OAKS — Over 130 entries are scheduled in the 23rd annual Flag Day parade here Sunday, June 13, according to its sponsor, Three Oaks American Legion Post 204.

Billed as one of the largest Flag Day parades in the nation, it will begin at 3 p.m.

A variety of bands and musical groups from southwestern Michigan and northern Indiana are scheduled to march. These groups include the River Valley high school band, Caledonia Killy band, Syracuse drum and bugle corps, Michigan City Moose Du-Kays band and drum corps, Warrior drum and bugle corps, Waterford Scout drum and bugle team, and the Plymouth life and drum corps.

There will be plenty of pretty girls too. Miss Blossomtime, Kim Smith of Gables, will join a host of other area pageant queens who will be riding on floats. Pageant winners include Miss Three Oaks, Miss Hartford, Miss Berrien county Bicentennial, Miss NAACP, Miss Southwestern Michigan, Miss New Buffalo and Miss New Troy.

Clark Equipment company of Buchanan will sponsor the Maple City cadets. Other entries include Bloss-omtime floats from several area communities, twirlers, mini-bikers and riding teams, antique cars, drill teams and Scouting groups.

Old Glory will be featured in marching color guards from a number of area veterans organizations.

In addition to the parade, other activities scheduled Sunday include a starving artists' show, trophy presentation to parade entries, a skydiving display and a carnival.

State's Newest Millionaire Seeks Hall For Big Party

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — A 45-year-old housewife whose husband says he bought two lottery tickets a week for the past 3½ years won $1 million Tuesday in the Michigan Lottery.

Rheuben Griffin of Leonard said he has bought hundreds of 50-cent lottery tickets at a bar in Dryden since the lottery started in November 1972.

Griffin said he bought Tuesday night's winner at the same place and his wife, Donna, was confident when she took it with her to the millionaire drawing in Flint.

"My name is on the check," she quipped just before the 22nd millionaire drawing in the 50-cent lottery game.

"Thirty contestants won a minimum of $3,000 each."

"I told all my friends if I won, I'd throw the biggest party that Leonard ever saw," she said after winning. She said the only problem now is finding a hall big enough for the party.

Her husband, who works at Champion Motor Homes in Imlay City, is planning immediate retirement. They have five children and said they will travel after their youngest daughter has a baby in October. The $100,000 winner Tuesday night was Patricia Ann Bora, 34, of Warren, an assistant bank branch manager for the National Bank of Detroit in Harper Woods. Her husband, Reynold, was laid off last week from McPherson Grouch, a tool-making company in Warren.

The $50,000 winner was Charles Kreiger, 59, of Royal Oak.

The four $10,000 winners were Judy LaManna, 26, of Saginaw; Edna Zuidema, 44, of Hopkins; Walter Pilch, 61, East Chicago, Ind.; and the Stadium City Five, a lottery club whose members work at a Fisher Body plant in Pontiac. There were 21 winners of $5,000 each.

Comp Board Overruled

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A worker can receive benefits for a disease which was present before an on-the-job injury which eventually forced him to leave work, the state Supreme Court has ruled. The court overturned a decision by the Workmen's Compensation Board of Appeals, which denied additional benefits to an employee of the Chevrolet Grey Iron Foundry Division of General Motors Corp.

BH Woman Runner-Up In Contest

Miss June Christiana Nelson, 19, of Benton Harbor, was named fourth runner-up recently at the Miss Black Michigan contest in Detroit. Contest officials have announced.

Miss Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Rosalie Hersey, 332 East Delaware street, became eligible to enter the June 4 statewide contest after she was chosen first runner-up at the Miss Southwestern Michigan contest in Cassopolis last month.

She is a chemistry major at the University of Wyoming.

Hepler Doubts 1962 Penetrator Ok Binding

By RALPH LUTZ
Staff Writer

The St. Joseph city commission on Aug. 13, 1962, formally approved the 1-94 penetrator as the first of a three-stage highway project, proposed by the Michigan State Highway department at that time.

The vote was unanimous at the regular commission meeting, according to minutes of the session on file at St. Joseph city hall.

The state, however, has made changes in its plans since then and it's not certain if the commission action in 1962 would remain binding for present plans, according to City Atty. A.G. (Pete) Preston.

Preston noted that the old minutes show the vote was only on the penetrator, in connection with the widening of Niles avenue. At that time, the now penetrator was to extend from 1-94 through St. Joseph township to Niles road, near Hickory creek, south of the city limits.

City Manager G.W. (Jerry) Hepler said Tuesday that while this is essentially the "same configuration," there's a question in his mind whether a decision of one city commission is binding on another.

Hepler said, "There's some continuity from commission to commission. In this case, it's questionable if the earlier vote is binding, based on feedback that I get."

Hepler earlier said he hasn't been able to find any account of commission action in past minutes. Hepler said he hadn't found the account in the Aug. 13, 1962 minutes, but wanted to look it up now.

The minutes of that meeting say, "The first stage or division involves the construction of the following as the penetrator or business loop:

"1. That portion of the River Route from 1-94 to Niles avenue along the abandoned New York Central railroad right of way.

"2. Thence north along Niles avenue to Whittlesey avenue with a five-lane pavement.

"3. Thence continuing north along Niles with a 44-foot wide pavement to Main street.

"4. Thence utilizing existing Main street north to Ship and Port streets.

"5. Thence using Ship and Port street as a one-way pair to connect with Wayne street and Benton Harbor."

The commission resolution dealt with only this first stage. The minutes record the vote as:

"Yeas: Commissioners Emmling, Johnson, Kasischke, Rill and Sparks. Nays: None. Absent: None."

Niles avenue has since been widened. Ship and Port have been made one way but the penetrator to the city limits has not been built.

Hepler said the two other stages planned at that time have been changed by the state. The second called for "the improvement of certain streets in the City of St. Joseph between Main street and the St. Joseph river, and the third and final stage or division being the construction of that portion of the River Route from Niles avenue to downtown St. Joseph, including the construction of a bridge from Pearl street in the City of St. Joseph to Empire avenue in the City of Benton Harbor."

The state currently plans route along the west bank of the St. Joseph river in St. Joseph and is building new bridges connecting the Twin Cities. A final stage of current plans calls for a "south belt," through part of Lincoln township, south, and then east across Royall and Sodus townships, to Benton township. In Benton township, the belt would end at the south terminus of I-196 and the north terminus of the proposed US-31 freeway.

A State Highway department official last week told this newspaper that city commission approval and approval by the Berrien county road commission are needed to proceed with plans.

Residents of St. Joseph and St. Joseph township voted against the penetrator route to St. Joseph in an advisory ballot during the May 18 presidential primary election.

The city commission recently indicated it wants to study an environmental impact report expected soon, before adopting any resolution on the proposed project.

Lots Of Orange Juice

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Prices for frozen orange juice concentrate probably will be forced down by inventories of millions of gallons larger than first reported, citrus industry spokesmen say.

Watervliet Charter Requires Earlier Summer Tax Deadline

WATERVLIT — Watervliet city summer taxes will have to be paid earlier this year than in previous years due to a discovery of required dates outlined in the city's 1925 charter.

City Treasurer William Rogers told the city commission last night that taxes will be mailed by July 1 as usual, but will have to be paid by Aug. 1 to avoid a four per cent penalty fee. In previous years taxes could be paid until Sept. 10 without penalty.

Rogers, who came across the July date in the charter, said he figured a previous commission, at one time, must have voted to extend the date, causing the September date to be used over the years.

Commissioners voted to uphold the charter dates and charge the penalty fee.

If taxes still are not paid by Oct. 31, a three-quarter of one per cent interest charge will be levied and taxes turned over to the county as delinquent.

Rogers said that his former practice of adding delinquent summer taxes to the winter taxes will be terminated.

In other areas, Mayor Arvid Frazier reported construction has started on the new water tank and tower by the Chicago Bridge and Iron company.

Work had been delayed on the project because funding by the Farmer's Home administration had been temporarily suspended.

Frazier said U.S. Sen. Philip Hart had sent the city confirmation that the FHIA will back the city bonds for construction.

Another city construction project that was being held up was also given the go-ahead when the Coast Guard notified the city that the guard will not have to issue a permit for the Butternut street bridge construction.

Coast Guard officials said that they would not have to judge on the navigability of Mill creek.

Frazier said the state will award bids on the $145,211 bridge project in Lansing on Thursday.

A plan submitted by former city commissioner William Fizzell to paint fire hydrants and street markings to help with fire safety was sent for further study to the police committee.

He said the hydrant and street markings would help firemen quickly identify hydrant locations in the city.

Fizzell also told the commissioners of plans for the Watervliet fire department's fourth annual Fun Day at Baldwin park, this Saturday.

Competing teams representing area fire departments enter into various contests as a fund-raising project for the local department.

Van Buren Sets Solid Waste Vote Date Attorney New

By DENNIS COGSWELL
Paw Paw Bureau

PAW PAW — Van Buren county voters will decide the fate of an $825,000 bond issue and a 1.2-mill property tax levy for a countywide solid waste system in the Nov. 2 general election.

The county board of commissioners voted the issues on the ballot yesterday during a regular meeting here.

County commissioners had indicated earlier that the propositions would be on the Aug. 3 primary ballot, but changed their minds yesterday to opt for the November election.

Commissioner Donald Hanson said he feared placing the solid waste issues along side a renewal of a four-tenths mill levy for ambulance operations which will be on the August ballot, might jeopardize the passage of both measures. Several townships also have local millage issues slated to be voted on in August.

The delay until November will mean that if the two solid waste issues are passed, implementation of the system will be delayed a year because the spread of the tax rolls will have already been completed in September.

The $825,000 bond issue would be used to acquire sites for the solid waste system and make improvements, and would probably be paid off over 18 years at a rate of three-tenths of a mill per year, according to Paul Kaiser, county highway engineer-manager. The road commission also functions as the county's board of public works which is responsible for the plan.

The 1.2-mill property tax levy would run for a period of 20 years, and is expected to generate $350,000 annually for operation of the system, according to Kaiser.

In other areas, Hanson said he was sending a letter to all township supervisors notifying them that the county plans to conduct a door-to-door survey this summer to find out how many dogs are unlicensed.

He warned that people issued summonses for unlicensed dogs face not only a $10 late fee for a license, but an additional $20 fine and costs in district court. The commissioner said the action was being taken because of the potential property damage and health hazards caused by dogs running loose.

Joe Nauk, project director for the county commission on aging, told the board about one-third of the county's 8,000 senior citizens were at or below the federal poverty level of $2,900 annual income. He listed their major problems as medical care, lack of transportation, and having to live on a fixed income in a period of inflation.

He said his agency was providing services in supplying information, referral to other agencies, outreach work, and follow-ups to determine if problems were being handled.

Hanson announced that the county planned to hire five employees in the juvenile court, sheriff's department, and Friend of the Court's office as summer aides and counselors. The jobs, which pay $3.25 per hour, are federally-funded and aimed at people in their junior year of college.

Kaiser presented the board with a certificate designating the county an official Bicentennial county.

A resolution thanking Judge Meyer Warshawsky for serving in the capacities of circuit, probate, and juvenile court judge since Jan. 1 was also passed. Warshawsky was juvenile and probate judge when he was also appointed to become circuit judge when Judge David Anderson Jr. retired.

The board also gave approval for the Paw Paw Elks club to use the courthouse grounds for a Flag Day ceremony June 14, and to the Paw Paw Bicentennial Festival committee to use the courthouse parking lot for a parade and performance by the Van Buren Folk Dancers July 3.

Chamber Chief At South Haven

SOUTH HAVEN — Atty. E. Major Schutt was elected president of the Greater South Haven Area Chamber of Commerce yesterday during the organization's annual reorganization meeting. Schutt, a resident of South Haven since 1970, is a partner in the law firm of Neal, Grier, Schutt, Hanson and Hanson of South Haven.

He succeeded Donald Peterson and will serve a one-year term. Other officers include Bruce McGinnis, owner of Lake Bluff motel, first vice president; Charles Henry, Citizens Trust and Savings bank, second vice president; Larry Schuyter, National Motors company, third vice president; Joseph Masterson, owner of Holly Inn motel, treasurer; Keith Stoner, American National Bank West, secretary; and Peterson, immediate past president.

Newly elected members to the board of directors include James Hale, Mrs. Elizabeth Boardman and Donald M. Goodwillie Jr.

murder, bringing the total death count to 11.

Miss Fugate has said Starkweather coerced her into accompanying him, but the redheaded killer testified that the woman was a willing helper and said or implied that she was involved in as many as six of the killings.

Victims of the rampage included Miss Fugate's mother, stepfather and 2-year-old half-sister. She said Starkweather killed them while she was in school, and that Starkweather held her hostage for six days. The next to die was August Meyer, 70, a bachelor who farmed at nearby Bennet, Neb.

Robert Jensen and Carol King, who offered Starkweather a ride, were the fifth and sixth victims, and Miss Fugate was convicted of first-degree murder for her part in Jensen's death. Fear spread through Nebraska's capital and the National Guard was activated on the third day of the spree after prominent Lincoln businessman C. Lanier Ward, his wife and housekeeper were found slain in their home. The final victim, salesman Merle Collison, was shot to death as he slept in his car on a Wyoming road. Miss Fugate surrendered just prior to the Collison shooting, running to a deputy sheriff and screaming, "He's going to kill me, he's crazy." Moments later, a defiant Starkweather was captured.

New Medicaid Legislation

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Legislation supporters say could bring the state's Medicaid program $12 million a year is in the Senate. The House this week approved, 96-0, the measure sponsored by Rep. Wayne Sackett, R-Portage. The measure would become law immediately if it is passed by the Senate and the governor signs it. The bill allows the state to withhold Medicaid payments if a patient is entitled to medical care or reimbursement under another act or through a health insurance policy. The bill also allows the department to sue independently or join in any suit brought by a Medicaid recipient against his or her health insurance company.

$1 Million Grant

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The state Board of Education has received a $1 million federal grant to help 50 school districts implement career education programs. John Porter, state superintendent of public instruction, said the grant was received from the National Institute of Education. Under a 30-month program, Porter said, the state board will work with local teachers to strengthen Michigan's 50 career education planning districts and identify career education needs.

Lawrence Plots Legal Strategy In Sign Battle

LAWRENCE — The Lawrence village council last night set June 14 as the date for a strategy meeting on legal courses the village can take in force removal of an eight-foot-long business sign erected in a residential district.

The sign is in front of a house belonging to Robert Koshar, 525 West 1st, Joseph street, who operates a real estate office there.

Koshar has been granted a zoning variance from the village allowing him to run a business in his home, but village officials maintain the agreement does not permit display of the sign.

In other areas, Village President Eugene Carr named Dale Gribler police chief. He had been acting chief since March 3 when the council fired Lescoe Earls.

Councilmen said they will check to see if any comprehensive employment training act (CETA) funds can be made available so the village can hire another fulltime officer. In addition to Gribler, the village employs one fulltime and two part-time policemen.

The council voted to give notice that property owners have until June 25 to mow vacant lots in the village. Any lots not mowed will be done by village employees after that date and the owners will be billed.

The council voted to set a $25 fee for all people requesting hearings before the zoning board. The fee, which must be paid in advance, will pay the $5 per meeting salaries of the five-member board.

The council voted to donate $81 to the Van Buren county Commission on Aging to be used on programs for senior citizens.

Wounded Man Dies

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A Waldron man, who shot and killed his wife, wounded another man and then turned the gun on himself, died Tuesday at the University of Michigan Medical Center. Nelson Burnett, 44, sustained a .22-caliber pistol wound to the head in Hillsdale on Monday after inflicting a fatal wound to the forehead of his estranged wife, Sally, 34, and shooting a friend of Mrs. Burnett's, Douglas Friedrich, 26, also of Waldron. Friedrich was in serious condition.

Drinking And Speeding

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Drinking and speeding played major roles in Michigan's 30 Memorial Day weekend traffic fatalities, the Michigan State Police reported. The State Police Monday said drinking was a factor "to some degree" in 88 per cent of the fatal accidents, while speed was a factor in 45 per cent. During the holiday period that ran from 6 p.m., May 28, to midnight May 31, there were 25 accidents, the State Police reported. Fifteen of those involved drinking and drivers aged 16-25, a spokesman said. Last year's holiday death toll was 28, the spokesman added.

Galien Receives Sanitary Sewer Preliminary Plan

GALIEN — The Galien township board last night accepted the preliminary plan for sanitary sewer project as presented by Wightman & Associates, St. Joseph engineers.

The $1,350,400 sewer project study for Galien village also includes portions of Galien township and Weesaw township. Galien township residents on East Second street, east of the village, last night presented petitions to the township board requesting they not be forced to look into the system.

Thomas Deneau, Wightman engineer, said the East Second street section was included in the study because of the population factor of the area. He said the township could take action requesting that portion be deleted from the project. However, at a later date, he said, if the county or state could prove these homes were causing pollution, the owners could then be forced to put in a sewer at their own expense, without 80 per cent federal funding which is now available for the project.

Deneau was asked by Russell Babcock, township clerk, to prepare a fact sheet for study by the East Second street residents before the board takes action to delete the section from the project.

State law requires that if a sewer line runs within 200 feet of a home, the home must be hooked into it. Originally sewer lines were to be put at the end of East Second street, but the site has been changed.

Niles Officer Bound Over On Perjury Charge

Detective Capt. Paul Winquist of the Niles police force was bound over to Circuit court Tuesday on a charge of committing perjury March 18 during testimony before the Berrien county citizens' grand jury. A second felony charge that Winquist received and concealed a stolen typewriter valued over $100 was reduced to a misdemeanor charge involving less than $100 during yesterday's preliminary examination in Fifth District court.

Primary Battles At End

stop-Carter move. But he added that he would not release his delegates because they "cannot be delivered."

Church said of Carter: "He's coming very close to being able to claim the number of delegates necessary for a first-ballot victory." And he said of his telephone conversation with the former Georgia governor: "I told him: I thought he had established an entitlement. It would be difficult for the convention to deny."

Earlier in the day, it was Daley who indicated he was ready to jump on the bandwagon.

Daley said he was not making any endorsement just yet, but predicted that if Carter won Ohio, as he did, "he'll be the nominee." The mayor also said of what he called the religious tone of Carter's campaign: "That's something we need some of."

But Brown, who has won in Maryland, Nevada and California and been backed by parts of winning uncommitted states in Rhode Island and New Jersey, would not part of that.

"Every state I have gone into, Jimmy Carter has lost," he said. "The 1,500 delegates are not accounted for. Today was a very strong boost for my candidacy."

On the Republican side, things went just about as expected. Reagan won easily in California, Ford with little trouble in Ohio and the delegate slate headed by Sen. Clifford P. Case captured all the New Jersey slots over a slate that Reagan did not sanction and which carried the label "former California governor."

Both the Reagan and Ford camps predicted their candidates would win on the first ballot, as one of them would almost surely have to do if no other candidates enter the field. And both sides said, as they have been saying, that their man would have a better chance of beating the Democratic nominee.

Reagan told cheering supporters in Los Angeles: "I think the train is pulling out."

"It's going to Washington," shouted a supporter. "Yes," replied the candidate. "By way of Kansas City."

Decatur Gives $200 To County Youth Services

DECATUR — The Decatur township board last night approved payment of a $200 donation to the Van Buren county Youth Services organization.

The money is to be used by the organization to help provide counseling for youthful offenders, according to Mrs. Joan Henderson, a volunteer worker who presented the funding request to the board.

The organization is partially funded from state and federal sources. It is currently working with 25 youths from Decatur village and township, she said.

In other areas, the board heard a report from Mary Kaplan, local Bicentennial chairman, who said 13 maple trees were to be planted at 4 p.m. Friday at the new addition to the Lakeside cemetery.

She said Bicentennial planners were looking for entries in the parade scheduled for Saturday, July 3.

Supervisor Joseph Miller said the first application of salt water treatment for dust control had been applied to the township's gravel roads.

ROBERT LARUE

Paw Paw To Vote On Tax Issue

PAW PAW.— School district voters here will ballot on an 18.42-mill school operating tax issue and settle a three-way race for two school board seats in the district's annual election Monday, June 14. Seeking the two, four-year terms on the board are Robert D. LaRue, Kenneth Taylor and Maurice Wickett. The top two vote-getters will be the winners.

The three seek to succeed incumbent board members Harold Price and Reynold Das who are not seeking re-election.

The millage proposition calls for a renewal of 17.5 mills which expired with the 1975 tax collection, coupled with a .92 mill increase. If approved, the 18.42 mills, plus 3.58 mills allocated to the district, would bring the system's operational millage to 27 mills. The district levied an additional 3.5 mills for debt retirement in its last tax collection.

The .92 mill increase would generate an estimated $86,321 in additional revenue — $39,035 in local taxes and $47,286 in extra state aid, according to Supt. Norval Dovee. Overall, the total levy would produce about $725,000 in local taxes for operations towards a tentative 1976-77 budget of $3.2 million.

One big factor in the need for the increase, Dovee said, is inflation, which since 1971 has increased at a faster rate than the district's state equalized valuation. The superintendent also indicated that district enrollment is expected to be down about 50 students next fall, resulting in a loss in state aid. He also stressed that at present the final form of the state aid formula as it relates to both school and community education programs, is very uncertain.

Of the candidates, LaRue, 40, route 1, Paw Paw, is editor of employee publications at the Upjohn company, Kalamazoo. He and his wife, Rosemary, have three children. Taylor, 36, is community services coordinator for the state police's Fifth district. He and his wife, Margery, reside at 309 Miller. Paw Paw, and have two children.

Wickett, 36, First street, Paw Paw, is a lineman for Michigan Power company. Wickett and his wife, Marjorie, have two children.

Weesaw To Discuss Sewerage

NEW TROY.— The Weesaw township board has called a special meeting for tonight at 7 p.m. at the township hall to consider a plan to provide sewerage treatment for portions of the township near Gallen.

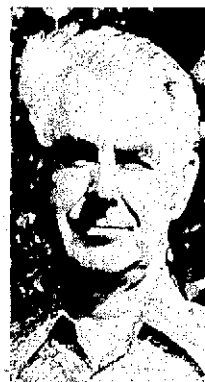

No Strikes

WASHINGTON (AP)— Labor contracts in the construction industry are being negotiated without the strikes and inflationary wage settlements that former Labor Secretary John F. Dulles warned of six months ago.

Federal officials say the moderation is mainly due to high unemployment and competition from non-union labor.

BERRIEN SPRINGS DISTRICT

Millage, Two Seats On Ballot

BERRIEN SPRINGS.— Voters in the Berrien Springs school district will elect two school board members from a field of five candidates in the June 14 annual school election.

The fate of a 6.2-mill property tax levy proposal will also be decided in the balloting. The board candidates are incumbents Peter Rudell, currently board president, and William Boyd and challengers Kenneth Thomasson, Robert Sill and Franklin Fisher. Two, four-year terms are at stake.

If approved by the voters, all or part of the 6.2 mills may be levied for a two-year period. The proposal includes renewal of 3.2 mills that expired with the last tax collection and 3 additional mills.

Approval of the millage request would hike the school district's operating tax levy from 22.7760 mills to 25.7760 mills. In addition, the district will continue to levy 4.37 mills for debt retirement, making the total levy 30.0480 mills.

Supt. Jon Schuster said the additional rate is being sought to help offset a projected loss of state aid and increased unemployment compensation costs totaling an estimated $403,441 for the 1975-76 and 1976-77 school years.

Each mill would raise an estimated $47,000. The district's operating budget last year was $3.1 million.

Among the candidates, Rudell, 53, has been a school board member for 15 years. A retired farmer, he is employed by the Kechkayla Real Estate Co., Berrien Springs. Also a member of the Berrien Township board, Rudell and his wife, Martha, live on Range Line road, Berrien Springs.

They have six children.

Seeking his second term on the board, Boyd was first elected in 1972. A counselor at the Lakeshore Junior High School, Boyd is 39. He and his wife, Camille, live at 1540 Moccasin Trail, Berrien Springs. They have two school-age children.

Thomasson and Sill are both seeking public office for the first time, while Fisher was an unsuccessful school board candidate in 1972.

Manager of the Berrien Springs Fruit Co-operative Association, Thomasson is 30. He and his wife, Charlotte, live at 209 South Cass street, Berrien Springs. They have three children.

Sill, 55, lives on Hinchman road, Berrien Springs. He is employed by Gast Manufacturing, Bridgman, and also farms. He and his wife, Laura Jean, have five children.

Vice president and general manager of Electric Steam Generator Corp., Michigan City, Ind., Fisher is 38. He and his wife, Ruth, live at 3403 East Snow road, Berrien Springs. They have three children.

Covert Has 4 Candidates For School Board Posts

COVERT.— Four candidates, including one incumbent, are seeking two four-year terms on the Covert school board in the June 14 school election here. There are no millage or bond proposals on the ballot. The polling place at the high school gym will be open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m.

The candidates are incumbent Harold Bracken and challengers Rev. L.C. Berry, Leroy Morris and Gregory Tischler. Incumbent Ernestine Kahn is not seeking re-election to the post to which she was elected in 1972.

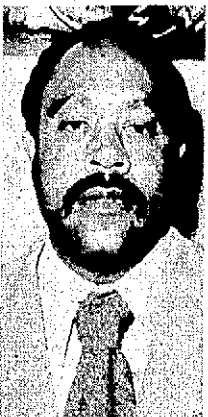

Bracken, 51, has served on the board since 1971. He has lived in the community for 20 years and he and his wife, Bertha, have eight children. The family lives on Main street in Covert. Bracken is employed as a driver with the J.A. Jones Construction company.

Rev. Berry, 49, Lake street, is pastor at Lily of the Valley Church of God in Christ and is also owner and operator of Berry Janitorial services. He has lived in Covert for 27 years. He and his wife, Vergie, have six children.

Morris, 48, Main street, is a garage owner and mechanic and moved here about five years ago from Chicago. He and his wife, Mary, have six children.

Tischler, 45, 75th street, is a fruit farmer and came to this area about five years ago from Chicago where he owned a night club. He and his wife, Lurlean, have one child.

Sodus Asks $85,000 Park Grant

SODUS.— The Sodus township board last night took the first steps toward the proposed purchase of a 39-acre site for a park along the St. Joseph river. The board voted to send a pre-application to the state Department of Natural Resources seeking a grant of up to $85,000. If approved, the money would be used for purchasing and developing the park.

The board also adopted a recently completed park and recreation plan for the township which had been prepared by the three-member park planning committee. The plan outlines possible development of the proposed park site on Nickerson avenue. The land, which borders on the river, is presently owned by Walter Fischer, of 1536 Nickerson road.

Completion of the plan was necessary before the township could apply for grants, according to Carol Cox, township clerk.

Fischer's property is presently being used as a fruit farm, Cox said.

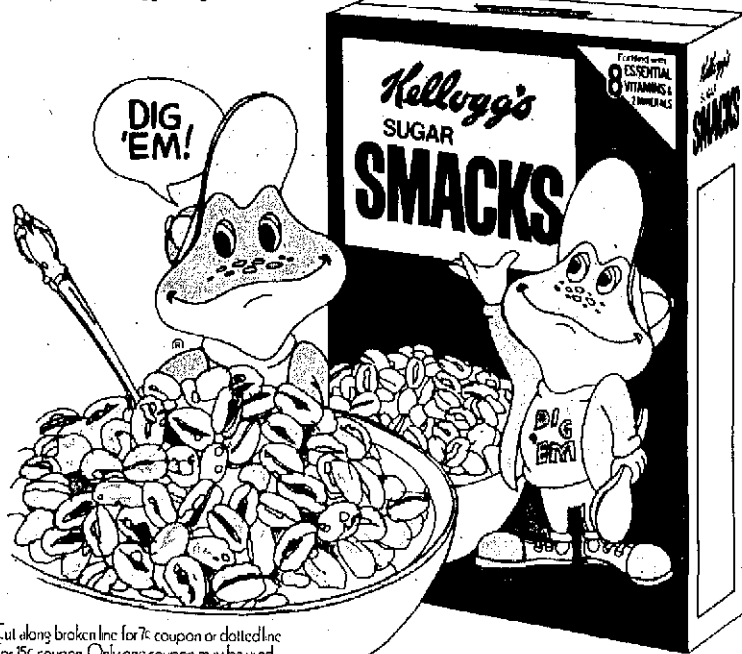

If the state grant is approved, township capital development funds on hand would be used as matching funds to help in buying and developing the site, Cox said.

The board set a tentative date of Wednesday, June 23, for a public hearing to explain the details of the park proposal. The hearing is to begin at 8 p.m. at the township hall. The proposed site would be open for public inspection two hours prior to the hearing.

In another area, the board voted to continue its membership for another year in the Michigan Township association by paying annual dues of $310.

Cards Put Five On Star Squad

Bloomingdale might have had a rough time winning the Southwestern Athletic Conference's baseball title but it was no contest when it came to choosing the all-league team as the Cards put five men on the first squad announced today by the league coaches.

Seniors from Bloomingdale who made the team are pitcher Tim Hoyt and catcher Jeff Melvin. The Cardinals placed three juniors on the squad including Mike Fritz at first, third baseman Pat Barnes and outfielder Jim Keorpern.

Decatur diamonding on the first team are seniors Kevin Haun, an outfielder and pitcher

Al McAdams and junior shortstop Kurt Wiese.

The rest of the squad is Gobles' senior outfielder Jim Hansen and Lawton senior Bryan Cronwell, a second baseman.

Gobles, Lawrence Top Softball Vote

SAC champion Gobles and Lawrence dominated the all-conference girls softball team announced by the league coaches today. Gobles girls who made the first team are pitcher Pam Wescott, catcher Vicki Burn and outfielders Lori Henson and Pam Markus.

Lawrence placed three on the first squad including pitcher Jody Bonnersheim, Geri Glisla at first and outfielder Sheri Lyons.

The rest of the team includes Rose Fuentes, a second sacker, and shortstop Sue Marenek of Decatur and Marcellus' third sacker Jan Afman.

The second team is made of Decatur pitchers Diane and Nancy Neutreier, catcher Pam Stauffer from Marcellus, Diana Graham of Decatur at first, Lawrence's Kathy Beeching at second, Alice Johnson of Gobles at Cindy Showerman of Lawrence at short.

The outfielders are Denise Brown and Tammy Moler of Marcellus, Decatur's Betsy Stambeck and Kay McKain of Gobles.

Tigers Trim Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Jason Thompson blasted a towering two-run homer and Dave Roberts held Kansas City to seven hits Tuesday night as the Detroit Tigers beat the Royals 3-1.

Thompson, a non-roster first baseman picked fourth by Detroit in the free agent draft one year ago, hit his homer off Dennis Leonard, 5-2, in the second inning, driving in Rusty Staub who had walked.

With two out in the third, Dan Meyer doubled off the right field wall, just out of reach of Al Cowens, and came home on Staub's single.

Roberts, 3-4, was in command almost all the way and lost his slout in the ninth inning on singles by George Brett, John Mayberry and Hal McRae.

McRae, who entered the game tied with Brett for the American League batting lead at .348, went 3-for-4 to take sole possession of the lead at .358. Brett had only one hit.

Roberts, making the first start of his long career against Kansas City, allowed only one base runner to reach third through the early innings, and then on an error, Frank White barely legged out a bunt and took second when Roberts threw high.

Jim Wohlford hit his second single of the game to move him to third, but the Royals' first genuine threat of the game evaporated as Roberts coaxed a double-play grounder from Anos Otis.

Leonard, Kansas City's pitcher of the month for May, set the Tigers down in order in the first and sixth innings but experienced difficulties in between.

After the Tigers scored in the second and third innings they threatened in the fourth with two singles but were outdown on a double play.

ADAMSON ARRESTED: Phoenix, Ariz. policeman escorts John Adamson, 32, following his arrest Tuesday afternoon on a felony charge of defrauding an innkeeper. Arizona Republic newsman Don Bolles told fellow reporters last Wednesday he was to meet Adamson at a midtown hotel. Bolles was critically injured when a bomb exploded under his car after leaving the hotel when Adamson failed to appear. Adamson was charged with failing to pay a $126 bill at a hotel last November. Viewers Turn Off Violence, Sponsors?

By R. GREGORY NOKES
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The president of the nation's largest advertising agency says a survey conducted for his agency shows that many television viewers are turning off violent TV programs and may also be rejecting the products advertised on those programs. Don Johnston, president of the J. Walter Thompson Co., said a poll conducted in March shows that 10 per cent of viewers apparently consider not buying products because they are advertised on programs they consider excessively violent. Eight per cent reported "consciously not buying a product," he told the annual convention of the American Advertising Federation here Tuesday.

He said that even if subsequent polls show only 4 per cent of viewers reject products because they are advertised in connection with violence, "I cannot imagine any advertiser who would want to risk negative sales of these proportions."

Johnston said the survey, although preliminary, corroborates other indications "that public hostility to violent TV programming is growing." He said the J. Walter Thompson agency is "examining our clients to evaluate the potential negatives of placing commercials in programming perceived as violent." Opponents of TV violence are organizing, he said, and Johnston predicted their actions will be felt "more and more ... in letters of protest and in product boycotts."

Johnston also said he personally opposes excessive violence on TV, and so does the agency. "We are questioning that part of TV programming that exploits violence," he said. "We believe it is socially and psychologically damaging to large sections of the population."

Johnston said the agency's poll was conducted among 200 adult TV viewers. He said the agency has decided to expand the survey "to verify the preliminary results." Among these results, he said, is that two of every five persons said they avoid watching programs they consider too violent.

Also, one of every five men and one of every three women said they prevent their children from watching programs they thought were excessively violent, he added. Johnston said the agency's analysis of existing scientific and social research on TV violence reveals the following areas where it believes "damage is caused."

"If they (children) are constantly given models of violent behavior, their behavior will probably turn violent."

"Heavy watching of TV violence contributes to the tide of paranoia that afflicts a major part of the population ... Caution is a useful emotion. Terror is not."

Chile Under Pressure

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Chile's military government was under new pressure from the United States and some other American countries today to free the 4,000 political prisoners it is estimated to be holding or at least respect their human rights.

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger warned the ruling junta that U.S.-Chilean relations will remain cool unless it improves its performance on human rights. Venezuela and Jamaica called for a large-scale release of prisoners.

SEEPAGE WAS CAUSE?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Water seeping past concrete barriers that lined Idaho's Teton Dam may have caused the dam's disastrous collapse last Saturday, a government spokesman says.

The collapse, as the earthen dam's reservoir was being filled for the first time, sent a flood racing down the Teton River, killing at least nine persons and destroying homes and farms.

With the disaster under investigation in Congress and by government scientists, a spokesman for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation said attention was centering on signs that water seepage first began eating a hole into the base of the downstream, "dry" side of the 307-foot-high dam, rather than the upstream side where its new 17-mile reservoir was half full and still rising.

But the spokesman said investigators did not know how the water might have reached that area on the face of the dam. The $33-million structure was completed last December after being authorized in 1964 for flood control and irrigation.

The spokesman said bureau experts speculated that once the seepage washed a channel through to the reservoir side, the high-pressure reservoir water began pouring through, rapidly enlarging the break until the dam burst.

Officers Testify Fletcher 'Surly'

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Two Flint policemen have testified they tried to get a black policeman, now accused in a police shooting, dismissed from the police academy because they thought she was arrogant and surly.

Patrolman Clifford Ames, a 15-year-old veteran of the force, says he suggested to his superiors Madeline Fletcher should be dismissed because she did not work hard enough in recruit training, slept in one class and balked at doing running exercises.

Police Sgt. Miles White also testified he wanted Miss Fletcher dismissed from the training class because she showed traits of being a "loner" and was sullen.

Miss Fletcher was among the first group of female officers to train for street patrol with the Flint police department.

She is on trial in Genesee County Circuit Court for assault, for the wounding of her white partner during an argument Dec. 27 over who would drive their squad car.

Under cross-examination, Ames said he felt he had never been promoted to sergeant because the department's affirmative action program put women and blacks ahead of him. White said he did not wholeheartedly support affirmative action because the recruits did not do as well as those hired before the affirmative action program.

Police Sgt. Michael Ahearn testified he arrested Miss Fletcher about an hour after she had been shot in the chest. He said he did not try to get her version of the shooting.

WHILE THE American colonies began fighting Britain for their independence, Spain was spurred to colonize California by Russian fur trade and exploratory intrusions along the Pacific coast. Military posts were established and Franciscan missionaries were set to convert the Indians. The World Almanac recalls that beginning in the early 1770s, Friar Junipero Serra founded 21 missions, among them the missions of San Juan Capistrano and San Francisco Asis, both founded in 1776.

COMMUNIST GOAL
WASHINGTON (AP) — South Africa Prime Minister John Vorster warns that a Communist-dominated southern Africa would endanger the entire free world. Vorster said that Communists are determined to seize control of southern Africa as part of an over-all goal to dominate the world.

She'll Display Even More Skin In A Magazine

Q: I saw Sarah Miles in "The Sailor Who Fell From Grace with the Sea" and can't understand why such a fine actress would do those naked scenes. — P.N., Charlotte, N.C.

A: You haven't seen anything yet. Sarah, we understand, signed with a men's magazine to do a nude spread in an upcoming issue. Fine actress or not, Ms. Miles seems to enjoy controversy and gets a kick out of shocking people.

Q: Are they really going to do a movie on that book, "The First Time," in which celebrities tell of their introduction to sex? — Y.A., Portland, Ore.

A: The report is that producer Ray Stark ("Funny Girl") has optioned film rights to the book but may end up owning nothing but the title. The big names who told all for publication are threatening in sue in droves if their experiences are put on film. Changing the names won't help much either since the book

Q: Any inside dope on Kissinger's resignation? — Raleigh, N.C.

A: Nearly everyone agrees that Kissinger is leaving but the big question is when? We have one piece of interesting evidence that indicates sooner rather than later. Henry has just shipped all the paintings he borrowed from the Museum of Modern Art in New York to decorate his State Department office back to the museum.

Q: Where does Liza Minnelli get those fancy clothes? — R.R., New York

A: New York designer Halston does most of them. But some caty types are saying that he has to number code all her outfits so she'll be able to match up each dress with the right shoes, earrings and scarfs. If he doesn't — so they say — she'd end up looking like a rag doll.

Q: How is Totie Fields doing — that wonderful comedian who had her leg amputated? — L.D., Chicago, Ill.

A: Totie seems to be doing quite well. She credits the lavish attention of friends and fans with helping her recovery, including a personal letter from Betty Ford. It was good friend, singer Helen Reddy, who called the White House and suggested to the President's wife that a letter to Totie would be the best kind of tonic.

Q: You wrote that actress Lesley-Anne Down of "Upstairs, Downstairs" signed on for a nude scene with Peter Sellers in "The Pink Panther Strikes Again." How did it go? — T.W., Orlando, Fla.

A: It was a piece of cake, says Lesley-Anne. She did take her clothes off but reports that very little of her can be seen in the film itself. Girl chaser Sellers apparently liked what he saw, however, and has been dating Lesley-Anne ever since.

Q: What's this about the dog star of "Won Ton Ton" flying around the country first class? — J.M., Chicago, Ill.

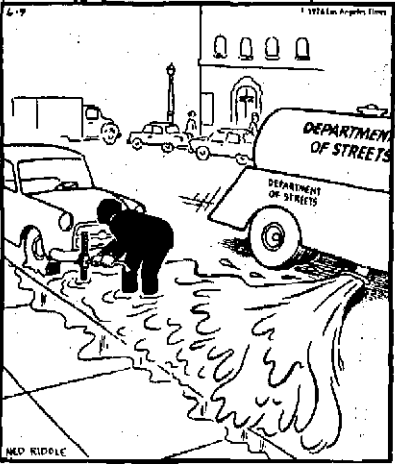

A: The studio wanted to fly the canine star of "Won Ton Ton, the Dog that Saved Hollywood" from premiere to premiere across the country in a first-class seat. But the airlines don't let dogs in the passenger section of planes unless they are leading a blind person. So the studio, naturally, went out and hired a blind man to escort the dog.

Q: Am I right in thinking that TV game shows are coming back strong? — T.G., Hartford, Conn.

A: Right you are and the biggest game show ever is about to hit television. This one will use contestants with genius IQs and the jackpot will be $1 million. The name of the show? You guessed it — "Million Dollar Brain."

Brandywine To Decide 2 Board Seats, Millage

NILES — Brandywine school district voters will elect two school board members from a field of four candidates in the June 14 annual school election.

Also on the ballot will be a proposal to renew a 17-mill property tax levy for operating funds for a three-year period.

Incumbents Allen Schieber and Atty. Bernard Henely face challenges from Mrs. Marilyn Fisher and John Bittle.

While Schieber and Henely are incumbents, both are seeking election to a full, four-year term for the first time. Schieber, 27, of Cass county's Milton township, was elected to a partial, one-year term in June, 1975.

Henely, 32, of Bertrand township, was appointed in October, 1975 to fill the remaining term of Michael McGregor, who moved from the district.

Both Mrs. Fisher, 32, of Niles township, and Bittle, 33, of Niles township, are seeking their first elected office.

The 17 mills would raise about $845,000 towards financing an annual school budget that topped $2.1 million during the 1975-76 school year.

Digital Electronics Class Starts June 14 At LMC

Digital Electronics Fundamentals, a special six-week course sponsored by the Lake Michigan college community services division, will be offered at LMC from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Mondays.

It will start June 14 and will be open to all interested people although a general understanding of transistor theory and operation is recommended since the class will concentrate on digital circuits and components.

Steve Barton, design engineer for Heath Company, will be the instructor. Registration will be held during the first class session in Room B-312 on the Nupier avenue campus.

ANSWERING CHARGES: Dr. Joseph Emory, (left) his son Alan, 32, and wife Harriet were to return to court in Los Angeles, Calif., to answer multiple charges of murder in the death of infants from a facility operated by Dr. Emory. On Tuesday they were given additional time to find an attorney. (AP Wirephoto)

Two Candidates Quit In Allegan

ALLEGAN — Two Allegan county people have withdrawn as candidates for county offices, according to the Allegan county clerk's office.

Mrs. Anna Wood of Casco township has withdrawn as a Republican candidate for Allegan county drain commissioner and Republican Robert Clearwater has withdrawn as a candidate for county commissioner from the sixth district one of two offices for which he filed as a candidate.

The two were the only reported withdrawals from county races in southwestern Michigan, according to spokesmen for county clerks in Allegan, Berrien, Cass and Van Buren counties.

Deadline for withdrawing as a candidate was Friday, June 4, at 4 p.m.

While Clearwater withdrew as a county commissioner candidate, he remains a Republican candidate for register of deeds.

Three other Republicans and a Democrat are also candidates for that office.

Mrs. Wood, 50, said she was withdrawing from the Republican race for drain commissioner to avoid fragmenting the vote during the Republican primary, preventing another candidate from unseating Republican incumbent Walter Morris who is seeking re-election.

In the county commissioner race from which Clearwater withdrew, there remain three Republican candidates, including incumbent Louis TerAvest.

Optometry Degree Is Received

JOHN H. MCDUGALL
Receives degree

SOUTH HAVEN — John H. McDougall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard McDougall, route 2, South Haven, recently received a degree in optometry from the Illinois College of Optometry.

McDougall, 23, a graduate of L. C. Mohr high school, South Haven, achieved membership in the college's contact lens honor society and was awarded a special certificate in pediatric visual therapy work. He was also accepted into the National Eye Research Foundation.

McDougall plans to open a private practice in Atlanta, Ga., performing general optometry and assisting children with vision problems that relate to learning disabilities and perceptual-motor problems.

Arnold Williams Hanes, Jr., 26, and Susan Jo Franke, 24, both of Berrien Springs.

Vincent Frank Licata, 23, Detroit, and Deborah Ann Nevill, 22, Niles.

James Pollard, 36, and Mary Johnson, 25, both of Benton Harbor.

Five Vie For 2 Niles Posts

NILES — Voters in the Niles school district will elect two school board members from a field of five candidates, including two incumbents and a former trustee, in the June 14 annual school election.

There will be no millage on bond issues on the ballot here. Seeking re-election to two, four-year terms are incumbents Mrs. Leslie Hahn and Pierce Williams, both of Niles. They will be challenged by former board member Joseph Lehner and newcomers Rev. William McVay and Atty. Peter Smith, all of Niles.

Mrs. Hahn, 49, is an eight-year veteran of the board. She served as president of the unit during the 1971-72 school year.

Williams, 40, was appointed to the board in January of this year to fill the term of Carlton Dungey, who resigned.

Lehner, 39, was defeated for re-election in June of 1975. He was appointed to the board in 1973 to fill a vacancy and later that year, was elected to a two-year term to fill out the rest of the term.

Smith, 30, and Rev. McVay, 34, are both seeking elective office for the first time.

A Dollar A Half-Acre

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Gov. William Milliken signed a bill Tuesday selling a half-acre of state-owned land in the Ionia County Intermediate School District for $1. The land was owned by the state Department of Corrections' Ionia State Hospital. The law provides that if the land is not used for educational purposes within 10 years, it will revert to the state.

Bridgman Budget Is Up $50,000; Tax Up 3 Mills

BRIDGMAN — A 1978-77 budget calling for total expenditures of $453,124 has been approved by the Bridgman city commission.

Approval of the budget includes a three-mill hike in the city's property tax rate, raising the total levy to 12 mills, including one mill for the library. It was the first property tax hike by the city commission in four years. The city, according to charter, can levy up to 20 mills without a vote.

The new budget, approved following a public hearing is over $50,000 more than last year's total budget of $402,748.

The city's new state equalized valuation is $14,532,482, compared to $13,176,014 last year. The reduction was due to the removal of business personal property valuation from tax rolls under the new state single business tax plan.

Based on the new SEV, each mill will raise about $14,500 in local property taxes.

Within the new budget are the self-supporting park, water and sewer departments calling for expenditures totaling $194,552. Last year total for the three departments was $167,957.

The water department budget calls for $106,831, sewer, $48,282, and parks $39,439.

The remaining $258,572 in spending is to be financed with the funds raised by the local tax levy, plus state shared revenue and local fines.

Major department budgets with current-year budget figures in parenthesis are: Administration office $43,137 ($71,530 which included major legal expenses on an annexation case); police, $36,665 ($20,920); fire, $12,010 ($11,206); street improvements and maintenance $88,059 ($60,660).

The police budget boost is to pay for expanding the force to two full-time and two part-time men. The force now consists of one full-time and one part-time officer.

In other areas during the regular meeting Monday night, the commission announced that the second required public hearing on each of four special assessment projects, concerning water, sewer, storm drains and street improvements, throughout various sections of the city will be held at city hall Monday, June 21 at 8 p.m. Engineers were present at last night's hearings to explain what has been proposed.

It was also learned last night that a citizen's committee has been formed to try and work with Bridgman Casting Center management concerning what some citizens have alleged is excessive noise, dust and odor coming from the plant.

Picknickers For A Mile

UPLAND, Calif. (AP) — A mile-long picnic table on Euclid Avenue parkway between Upland and Ontario, Calif., is probably the longest in the world.

Residents of the two cities gather there every 4th of July for their "All States Picnic."

About 2,000 pepper trees line the picturesque parkway.

MINISTER ACCUSED: Rev. John Bergtresser, pastor Grace Lutheran Church in which he is shown in Rogersford, Pa., a Philadelphia suburb, has been accused of stealing $25,000 from his church's collections. He denied the charge, saying, "If I was going to steal I certainly wouldn't take any money that could be tabulated." (AP Wirephoto)

Police Pair Tops TV Ratings

NEW YORK (AP) — A "Starsky and Hutch" repeat last week soared to the top of the A.C. Nielsen ratings. But a Jacques Cousteau underwater special on the same network sank to the bottom.

According to the Nielsen audience estimates, made public Tuesday, "Starsky and Hutch" was seen in more than 18.2 million homes last week.

The Cousteau special, the week's least-watched evening television show, was seen in slightly more than 4.4 million homes, trounced in its Sunday night time period by CBS' "60 Minutes."

The Nielsen estimates, for the week ending June 6, showed that the week's 20 most popular shows were: "Starsky and Hutch" (ABC); "M-A-S-H" (CBS); "Happy Days" (ABC); "Baretta" (both ABC); "All in the Family" (CBS); "Laverne and Shirley" (ABC); "One Day at a Time" and "Maude" (both CBS); "Police Story" (NBC); "Bonnie Boman" and "Sunday Movie" (both ABC); "Medical Center" (CBS); "Rockford Files" (NBC); "Switch," "Mary Tyler Moore," "Phyllis" and "Bob Newhart" (all CBS); "Jigsaw John" (NBC); "Six Million Dollar Man" (ABC); and "Kojak" (CBS).

MAP UPDATED

Oronoko Approves New Zoning Code

BERRIEN SPRINGS — The Oronoko township board last night adopted a new zoning ordinance and land use map, according to Alex Miskiewicz, township clerk.

The new ordinance, which will go into effect in 30 days, replaces existing ordinances which board members believed were out of date, Miskiewicz said.

The new ordinance and map had been prepared over the past 2½ years by the township planning commission. It was presented to the public at a May 24 public hearing.

Copies are to be available at the township hall, Miskiewicz said. In other areas, the board ac-

$8.29 MILLION

Galien River Sewer System Bonds Sold

The Berrien county board of public works (BPW) Tuesday sold bonds totaling $8.29 million for construction of a sewer system to serve the City of New Buffalo and parts of Chikaming and New Buffalo townships.

Although the bonds for each municipality were sold separately, all three were purchased by Harris Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago — which had submitted the lowest interest rates for each bond issue.

BPW Director Robert Barnes labelled the interest rates "very good," and Raymond J. Stauder, financial consultant for the BPW and local units on the project, said the bond bids reflected a strong market. There were three bidders on each project, although one bid was rejected in the Chikaming project.

A $1,300,000 bond was sold for the New Buffalo township phase at an interest rate of 6.502 percent. The City of New Buffalo's bond of $1,335,000 was sold for a 6.222 per cent interest rate, and Chikaming's bond of $5,655,000 was sold for 6.402 per cent interest.

Barnes explained the

Dow Declares 25c Dividend For Quarter

MIDLAND, Mich. (AP) — Dow Chemical Co. declared a quarterly dividend Tuesday of 25 cents per share on Dow common stock payable to stockholders of record June 30. The dividend is a 25 per cent increase from the previous quarter's 40 cents per share when adjusted for the recent 2-for-1 stock split approved by stockholders May 5.

South Haven Hospital

difference in interest rates was because of the length of the issue, with the city's coming due in 1994, New Buffalo township's in 2003, and Chikaming township's in 2006. Total interest payment by the city will amount to $888,321, New Buffalo township's interest will come to $1,536,337, and Chikaming's will be $6,842,063.

The $20 million Galien River Sanitary sewer system will receive in excess of $11 million from a federal grant and some $750,000 from a state grant. The project includes a sewage treatment plant in New Buffalo township, an interceptor from the city to the plant, collection systems in each township, rehabilitation of the city's existing collection system, and a partial new collection system for the city.

Stauder predicted the BPW should receive the money from the bond sale in about four weeks, and Barnes noted the BPW was expected to sign construction contracts today so work can start immediately.

Barnes also pointed out that the bonds for the Chikaming phase of the project were based on engineers' estimates, since the low bid on the Chikaming project is the subject of an appeal by a contractor whose bid was rejected.

He noted the BPW might have to sell additional bonds for Chikaming township if construction bids, when finally awarded, are higher than the estimates.

Fire Levels Cottage In Hagar

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed an unoccupied summer cottage about midnight last night on Hickory street south of Lake Michigan beach, according to Wayne Prescott, chief of the Hagar township fire department.

Prescott said that when firemen arrived the one-story cottage was engulfed in flames. Prescott said he would attempt to determine today who owns the cottage that was furnished but did not have electricity in service. There were no injuries reported.

Unity Hospital

BUCHANAN — Patients admitted to Unity hospital during the past 24 hours include: Buchanan — Joseph Hora, route 1, Box 734.
Galien — Margery Chapman, route 1, Box 58.
Niles — Billie Jean Shank, 410 Pokagon.

State Broadcast Stations Seek FCC Permits

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission Tuesday announced receiving applications for construction permits for new Michigan broadcast stations from: BUT & W. Lansing, and Benzie County Communications, Inc. (FMI).

Mechanic's Lien Law Illegal

ESCANABA, Mich. (AP) — A Delta County Circuit Court judge has ruled unconstitutional the Michigan mechanic's lien law that allows contractors to file a lien against a person's property for nonpayment of a bill.

Judge Clair Huehn ruled Tuesday the law violates a person's due process rights under the 14th Amendment to the Constitution.

He ruled that a lien can be imposed constitutionally. However, the judge contends the failure of the law to provide for a hearing, in which the validity of the claim can be determined within a one-year period, constitutes the taking of property without due process.

The case involved a suit between the Commonwealth Capital Investment Corp. of Massachusetts and a partially completed Holiday Inn project in Escanaba.

Stickup By Smiling Boy Is Foiled

The owner of Twin Cities Motor Transit bus lines told Benton Harbor police he was accosted by a "smiling" 10 to 12-year-old boy who brandished an apparently toy gun and demanded money Tuesday.

Joseph Mammina said the incident occurred as he was leaving a bus parked in the bus lot at 399 Territorial road Mammina reported he tried to grab the boy who fled on foot.

REPAIR PROJECTS

Bangor Township Checks Road Costs

BANGOR — The Bangor township board last night took under study cost estimates for five proposed road repair projects.

The delay was ordered so the board could determine which projects could be undertaken from available funds. The cost estimates, totalling $38,031, were submitted by the Van Buren county road commission at request of the board.

Involved are:
— Replacement of a bridge tube on 88th street, a mile south of CR-378, estimated cost, $7,496.
— Replacing 88th street one mile from CR-378 south to 34th avenue, $19,960.
— Grading and draining corrections in 66th avenue north of CR-378 to Townline road, $26,237.

Liberal Economic Tide Has Run Out

By JOHN CUNIFF

AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — "We are at the end of a 40-year tidal wave of economic liberalism," said Richard L. Leshner. "The general population is now singing the same song we have sung for years."

Leshner is the man named to preside over the merged efforts of the National Association of Manufacturers and the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, announced this week and scheduled to be completed this year.

When he made the statement in an interview last week, Leshner spoke only as president of the National Chamber, which he said was "right out there in front" of the parade, playing the conservative theme song.

On Monday the chamber and the NAM, the two most powerful business groups in the country, announced their intention to complete merger within six months, a move which Leshner believes can only mean even more harmony.

"It's the story of the year," he said, not about the merger but about what he called "a cross-over period" toward more conservatism that, he said, is now being illustrated in toned down speeches by liberal political candidates.

"People are dissatisfied with overprism," he said. "They're becoming more objective, and they'll measure performance of public and private sectors against realistic standards, against what is possible."

He indicated that a corollary to this is "more fear and concern today about the survival of private enterprise than at any time in history." People are worried, he indicated, that a good thing might be lost.

"The small-business man is climbing the walls trying to accommodate government investigators," he said. "There are probably very few small-business men who couldn't be fined or put in jail."

But the worry, he suggested, is not defeatist. Instead, it is a reaction to that "great disaster" of thinking the federal government has the answer to everything. The reaction, he said, is vital, optimistic, grass roots.

"Now people realize that a lot of these government programs have not worked well, that they are counterproductive, and that there are now some third generation welfare people. There's been an erosion of values."

Whether it because Congress is more willing to listen, or, contrarily, because it doesn't hear the new song, the chamber has greatly expanded its testimony before that group, from an average of 50 times a year to 94 most recently.

The chamber also has added 8,000 members since Leshner, 43, took over a bit more than a year ago, and now numbers 56,500 individual, business and professional members, and 3,500 organization members.

The NAM claims 13,000 members, which it says is an improvement over figures for earlier years, when mergers eliminated some members. However, it is readily reported to have had some financial difficulties recently.

Berrien Planners Adopt New Census Tract Plan

The Berrien county planning commission yesterday adopted its Census Tract Plan which planners hope will help the federal government obtain a more accurate census of the county in 1980.

Planning Director Charles Eckenstahler noted the more accurate a census is, the more federal and state dollars a county is eligible to receive. He also pointed out that Berrien county is close to becoming a Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area, upon which the federal government bases funding for some projects, and an accurate census might give Berrien county the SASSA designation.

The plan adopted by the commission divides the county into 62 census tracts for accumulation of census material on a smaller basis than a county-wide plan. Eckenstahler explained the tracts will be the basis for how the federal government will conduct its census in Berrien county. He added that after the census is completed, the planning department will have the census data available and will serve as a clearinghouse for census information dealing with Berrien county.

In another matter, the commission learned Eckenstahler responded to a query from the Coloma city commission which asked why Coloma was omitted from an industrial location inventory recently compiled by the planning department.

The city commission on May 24 had requested the county planning department to explain why the industrial sites submitted by the city were not included in the report.

Eckenstahler's letter to the city commission said the inventory sought industrial areas that had potential for future development into individual industrial sites, and the information Coloma submitted was only on specific sites, not the general areas sought by the county.

"This is not an inventory of existing industrial facilities or individual marketable industrial sites," Eckenstahler said in a letter to the city commission. He added, however, when a volume on individual sites is published at a later date, Coloma's sites could be included in that inventory.

In other business, the commission: — Agreed to apply for a $13,000 community planning assistance grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development to gather data from all agencies which have an impact on the county's physical growth.

The grant, Eckenstahler said, would allow the planning department to gather and consolidate information for financial analysis, implementation, and decision-making by municipal units. It would also compile and analyze future plans within Berrien county for hospitals, health facilities, community centers, libraries, schools, and other projects of the same type.

The grant would require a 25 per cent county match.

— Agreed with a recommendation by the St. Joseph township planning commission that a zoning-change request for 1.1 acres in the area of Niles avenue and Trail lane be denied. Township planners on May 25 denied a request from Ted Lausman, 2630 Trail lane, to rezone the property from residential to commercial. No specific use of the land was presented should it be rezoned. Final action on the request is up to the township board of trustees.

— Received a letter from Watervliet township thanking county planners for their help in developing updated zoning ordinances.

Housing Board Is Appointed

COLOMA — A new elderly housing commission for Coloma township was named yesterday and met last night to elect temporary officers.

Evald Eckblom, township supervisor, appointed John Chiviges, Wes Bexson, Joseph Kelenko, Miss B. C. Lombard, Colleen Child, Peter DeGroot and Jack Collinson to the new body. Kolenko was elected temporary chairman while Chiviges was named temporary vice chairman, Collinson, temporary secretary and DeGroot, temporary treasurer.

The commission replaces a commission formed last September but dissolved by Eckblom recently for lack of progress. Miss Lombard was a member of the former commission.

READERS WRITE ON OTHER TOPICS, TOO

Coloma Residents Support Tax

records. We have found a variety of compelling reasons for the need for more local financial support. Here are some of those reasons:

INFLATION

Inflation isn't new to any of us. We read about it every day and see it in the prices of food, clothing, housing, automobiles, and a myriad of other items necessary to our life and style of living. The schools see it too. In 1972, for instance, Coloma had to pay $12,500.00 for one school bus — now they have to pay

$17,500.00; in 1972, gas for those buses cost 14.2 cents per gallon — now it costs 30.6 cents; in 1972, the school paid about 85 cents for a thousand cubic feet of natural gas for heating — now they pay $1.25 for the same amount; in 1972 they paid 14 cents for a gallon of heating fuel oil — now they pay 38 cents per gallon; in 1972 they paid between 1 and 2 cents for a kilowatt-hour of electricity — now they pay between 2 and 3 cents; in 1972 the school paid 60.6 cents for a ream of duplicating paper — now they pay $1.22. Insurance premiums paid by the school have risen over $100,000 just in the last five years. Employee health insurance premiums, alone, will rise over 34 percent just this year.

NEW LEGISLATION

New State and Federal legislation is taking large bites of school budgets also. The Federal Department of Transportation has a new requirement that all trucks must have electronic, anti-skid brakes installed when they are manufactured. Well, this includes school buses too and has added over $1000.00 to the purchase price of Coloma's new school buses.

New State legislation requiring schools to pay retirement benefits for all school employees starting next year will add about 5 percent to the wage and salary costs of schools. Employees presently pay these benefits out of their own pockets.

TEACHERS CONTRACTS

A three year agreement between the Coloma Education Association and the Coloma School System signed last year will increase teachers at the top of their scale, this will mean an extra $48,000.00 for salaries next year. This contract was bargained in good faith and agreed upon with the recognition that teachers' salaries are eroded by inflation just like anyone else's.

STATE SCHOOL AID

Late in 1975, Lansing took back $69,817.00 in state aid to the Coloma Schools when they realized how out of shape the state budget was. The State budget isn't in any better shape now, nor will it be next year. For that reason the Legislators are still haggling over state school aid and are not expected to make up their minds until late July or early August. What is expected, however, is a substantial reduction in state aid to all schools and possibly more "take it back" adjustments during the next school year — and the next, etc.

We are all well aware of the toll that this recession has taken on us personally plus on industries and even on government at all levels. We must realize, however, that it hurts our schools also.

The requested 2.5 mills will only mean an average of about $30.00 per year from each of the Coloma School District's approximately 3800 families. This will buy a good pair of men's dress shoes — that will wear out in a couple of years. Our children's education will never wear out.

We have an obligation to provide quality education for our children and so far we've done just that in Coloma. A "yes" vote on June 14 will demonstrate our willingness to live up to that obligation.

GET FACTS, NOT HEARSAY SAYS COLOMA VOTER

Editor,

The residents of the Coloma Community School District received in their mail today a brochure urging people to vote on June 14 on the school millage.

First of all, my objection is not in urging people to vote on this millage issue. It is the way in which this matter is being approached. When compiled this brochure? If an individual or group of people want to print something and circulate it, fine; but the least they can do is identify themselves and get their facts straight first.

Just before the previous millage vote, a paper was printed and suggested innuendoes just as this present brochure. This wasn't identified either.

We have had three informational meetings about our school system and two informative meetings concerning the upcoming millage vote. All five meetings were very poorly attended by people of this school district. How can people expect to get accurate information by hearsay? They don't have to be "in the dark."

It seems as though people don't want to identify themselves when they either oppose an issue or know they are dealing with innuendoes. Come out of your shells, or wherever you are and tell the public who you are!

Second, why do these people wait until the last minute to publish these innuendoes? Timing — perfect, timing is involved. They are trying to shock the voters, give them a bunch of garbage — too late for the school board to answer accurately.

Third, teachers, along with other concerned citizens, will be calling people in the school district on June 14th to remind them to vote. That's all, nothing else. No one is telling anyone how to vote. Any intelligent person will get the facts pro and con and make up their own mind.

Fourth, there have been editorials in your newspaper concerning pay raises for teachers from time to time. The latest one in May questioned quality education. When is the last time you, thousands of parents, and taxpayers who are not parents, actually visited a school during school hours and found out first hand what is really going on?

Also, you comment on teachers simply foregoing salary increases, and I find benefits for the coming school year. Are the people employed by your newspaper willing to do this? Are the people employed at Whirlpool, Ausco, United Parcel, the auto industries, the tire companies, United Paper, makers, etc. willing to do this? If they are, then I would say that it would be a point worth considering by teachers as well.

Last but not least, as people read this letter and see who I am they might comment on the fact that I'm a teacher. Yes, I am. I am also a parent and a taxpayer of the Coloma school district.

What I want, considered by people before they vote on the millage issue June 14, 1978, is this: We are juggling the greatest resource on the line that we have — our children. I can live without a salary increase; I can live without a lot of things and have. Someday, I'll probably make up for that. If I don't, I'll survive quite well, I'm sure. But if we cheat our children out of as good an education as we can provide for them, it's going to affect them — particularly the average and below average children. How will they get by; how long will it take before they can "make-up" for what they won't get?

Vote June 14th whatever way you feel you must. However, before you vote, get the facts — not hearsay!

A LETTER TO HIS BELOVED CITY

Editor,

This is directed to my beloved city — Benton Harbor was a city with much to offer anyone. This city had a wonderful future and now it is a city of empty faces, places and spaces and no future at all. The question comes to my mind and it should come to yours if you live in the city of Benton Harbor — what happened?

Well, being a city with a population of 35 to 40 per cent black, the white population did what was normal for a white community to do — leave. (Stevensville, Fairplain, and St. Joseph) The black community has not as yet taken the responsibility of running the city with a firm hand politically and economically. It's a well-known fact that a city cannot exist on federal funds alone as Benton Harbor has done for the last five years. The black community has proven it lacks knowledge of issues and governmental affairs with this last disorder (recall).

Benton Harbor ask yourself what did the recall do for you? Your answer must be, nothing. The city can't even pay its bills because of the stupidity of one person. A government should not be stopped by one person and if there had been leadership in the recall group as well as the recalled city officials the city might well be moving in a positive direction today. It is a startling fact that the group of people who call themselves concerned about their city and that city being almost totally black in population would follow a man who just a few years ago would not even service a black man in his place of business because it would ruin his white trade. Think about it.

Not saying that the recalled city government was any better because the mayor's office was obtained with the help of our lockout corporation and that recalled group might still be in power if it had not fallen out of the good graces of that corporation.

When the people of Benton Harbor wake up, I sure hope I am around. When the people of Benton Harbor start taking pride in their city, I sure hope Benton Harbor is around.

SAYS STORY HURT REPUTATIONS

Editor,

I have written a letter to you and hope you publish it after you read it.

On the front page of the June 4th issue of this newspaper there were two pictures of broken windows at St. Joe High. The names of six boys who have been arrested for this destruction also were printed. I don't feel this is fair at all.

You made it sound as if the six boys did all the damage, when you have no proof. As I understand the boys did do the gym and science area but did not do the windows. If they had known the eggs would have hurt the floor I am positive they wouldn't have done it, since I know two of them pretty good. They aren't vandals.

I am a journalism student and we learned that when a paper blasts someone's name to the public for doing something wrong, but there is no certainty of it, that this is hurting that person's reputation. I feel this is a libel in the case of the broken window pictures and then the names of those boys. I hope everything works out good for these boys and I hope you will publish the truth!

Cindy Maddox
700 Kingsley Ave.
St. Joseph

EDITOR'S NOTE: The original report on the vandalism at St. Joseph high school in the June 4 edition of The Herald-Palladium clearly stated that the six youths had been booked by police "in connection with damage to the gym floor." While a casual reader may have connected them with the breakage of windows, our story at no point made such a connection. A follow-up story in the June 5 edition, given equal prominence on the front page, again clearly pointed out that the six had been booked for damage to the gym and physics room and that police still were seeking the window-breakers. Still another Page 1 follow-up story in the June 8 edition said the St. Joseph Board of Education would hold the youths and their parents responsible for the relatively minor cost of the littering damage, but since the boys had cleaned up their mess, would not prosecute them.

UNDERGROUND WIRING RATES PAT ON THE RACK

Editor,

Indiana & Michigan Electric Company is to be commended for burying electrical wiring on State street in St. Joseph; wouldn't it be great if a gradual program could be begun city wide? Having wiring underground would certainly improve the appearance of our community.

I also want to congratulate the City of St. Joseph, the commission and others who made the new scenic lookout park on Red Arrow highway just south of Hilltop possible. This is a beautiful addition to St. Joseph and I hope that in the future it can be extended both south and north.

POLICE ROUNDUP

$850 In Jewelry Is Reported Stolen

Two rings and a brooch valued at $850 were reported stolen Tuesday from the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kanyadi, 3923 Naomi road, Sodus township, according to state police of the Benton Harbor post.

The brooch was described as a five-carat topaz in a yellow gold setting. One ring was a 2 1/2-carat topaz in a yellow-gold setting, the other was a diamond ring in a white gold setting, described as an antique dating from the mid-1800s, the post reported.

Another theft reported to troopers Tuesday was four tires and rims, valued at $300, stolen from a car that had run out of gas. Troopers said Phillip Clark, 3787 Riverside road, Riverside, reported he left the car on Euclid avenue between Empire and Napier avenues to get gas and found the car sitting on blocks when he returned about an hour later.

Benton Harbor police said household goods valued at more than $1,000 were reported stolen from the home of John Lauderdale, 987 McAllister avenue, Tuesday. Among the missing items were a television, two end tables, two lamps, 28 recorded tapes, and a tape player.

Also reported stolen to Benton Harbor police were antiques, including a pot belly stove, love seat and pictures and frames from a garage at 931 Pearl street and reported by Esther Frappier, 2505 South State street, St. Joseph.

A CB radio was reported stolen from the truck of Ira J. Whet, 5540 Ridge road, Stevensville, parked in the 1100 block of East Main street, Benton township, Berrien sheriff's deputies said.

Benton Harbor police arrested a man Tuesday on a charge of possession of marijuana with intent to deliver after they were called to a home a report of an unwanted guest.

Police said 13 one-ounce bags of suspected marijuana were confiscated from a bag of charcoal after the home was searched. Permission to make a search was given after police said they received information that a man had marijuana.

Booked at the Berrien county jail was Eugene Whiteside, 29, of 980 Buss avenue, Benton Harbor.

A Benton Harbor man was arrested Tuesday by city police on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon after police said that she will not attend the oil tycoon's funeral in Los Angeles. Gatty died early Sunday at 83. (AP Wirephoto)

Police reported a .32 caliber revolver was confiscated from a car. No one was injured and police reports did not indicate whether shots were actually fired. Booked at the Berrien county jail was Moselee Kelly, 35, of 1274 Pearl street.

Cass Pair Bound Over In Berrien

NILES — Two Cass county brothers charged with two counts of armed robbery each were bound over to Berrien circuit court yesterday after waiving preliminary examinations in Berrien fifth District court here.

Brothers Terrance, 18, and Michael Stewart, 21, both of Allen road, Dowagiac, were lodged in the Berrien county jail, St. Joseph, after failing to post bonds of $5,000 and $10,000 respectively.

The two brothers were arrested last week in connection with an armed robbery at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fisher, 2653 Creek road, north of Niles, on May 12.

Fisher told state police from the Niles post that he was assaulted and robbed by two armed men who forced their way into his home. Police said Fisher was knocked to the floor and cash and electronic equipment with an estimated value of $700 was taken.

A plate glass window was shot out as the pair fled, police said.

BELL FIRM BOOMS

LONDON (AP) — The American Bicentennial is booming business at the 550-year-old Whitechapel Bell Foundry which cast the Liberty Bell in 1752.

LIZ SURPRISED

NEW YORK (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor was surprised to hear reports that her estranged husband Richard Burton tried and failed to get a quickie divorce in Haiti recently, a spokesman for the actress says.

WON'T ATTEND: The late J. Paul Getty's close companion for the past 15 years, Mrs. Rosabella Burch, 42, said Tuesday that she will not attend the oil tycoon's funeral in Los Angeles. Gatty died early Sunday at 83. (AP Wirephoto)

Allegan Trial In Second Day

ALLEGAN — The first degree murder trial of Roger Davis moved into its second day today after the prosecution yesterday called 15 of its 17 witnesses to the stand in the trial's first day.

Sparks, 19, a high school dropout, is accused of first degree murder in the slaying Dec. 22 of Deborah Knapp, 19, at home on vacation from Michigan State University when she was slain.

Her nude body, bloodied by 80 stab wounds, was found the next morning along 13th avenue in Allegan county's Saugatuck township by Mrs. Verleane Larrabee of Saugatuck.

Testimony yesterday was from Mrs. Larrabee, the victim's three brothers who testified she left the family home about 10:15 p.m. the night of Dec. 22, and from police experts who identified and described various bits of materials introduced as evidence.

A spokesman for the prosecutor's office said it is anticipated that Sparks' attorney, Harry Beach of Plainwell, will call a psychiatrist whose testimony Beach hopes will establish a defense of temporary insanity for Sparks.

Prosecution witnesses scheduled to testify today include a pathologist who is expected to testify as to the cause of the woman's death.

Cyclist 'Stable' After Crash

NILES — Charles Parker, 30, Niles, was listed in stable condition this morning at Pawating hospital, Niles, after being injured in a car-motorcycle accident east of here last night.

State police from the Niles post said Parker was riding a motorcycle east on Redfield road when the cycle was struck by an auto turning left into a private drive from the west lane of Redfield.

Police said the driver of the car, Russell Shoemaker, 68, of Niles, was cited for an improper left turn.

Police said the 11:50 p.m. accident occurred in Cass county's Milton township east of Niles.

TO WED GIRL FRIEND

LONDON (AP) — Rod Stewart, the rock superstar, says it is unlikely he will marry his Swedish girl friend, actress Britt Ekland, with whom he has been living for the past two years in Los Angeles.

Reports Gun Threat

COLOMA — A Coloma policeman reported he had to disarm a man threatening him with a shotgun and then scuffle with him before the man was taken into custody here last night.

Officer Edward Dill said the man had forced him to discard his holstered revolver before he was able to grab the shotgun barrel and jerk the weapon from the man.

Arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon was Gary William Moss, 24, 340 Garry street, Coloma.

Dill said the Moss was taken into custody at his home where Dill had gone to investigate a report of a family disturbance.

According to Dill, he was threatened and forced to drop his gun on a bed when he walked into a bedroom.

Dill said he found the shotgun was unloaded after taking it from the man. According to the officer, the scuffle resumed and continued until officers from Coloma township, Watervliet and the Berrien county sheriff's department reached the house. Dill was uninjured.

Gus Hall Blasts Ballot Challenge

By SUSAN AGER
Associated Press Writer

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — National Communist party head Gus Hall says he is "absolutely convinced" challenges filed in Michigan to keep the party off the November ballot are part of a national conspiracy.

That conspiracy involves the FBI and national Democratic and Republican party leaders, Hall charged Tuesday. He is running for president on the Communist party slate.

Hall said he has asked U.S. Atty. Gen. Edward Levi to investigate obstacles that have hindered the Communist party from getting on the ballot in various states, including Michigan.

His charge came after the Board of State Canvassers refused immediately to certify Communist party nominating petitions and asked the state elections bureau staff to check into allegations that 4,282 of the party's original 21,899 signatures were invalid.

The allegations were filed by five election clerks who, claiming they were acting only as individuals, said they wanted to keep the Communists off the ballot so the state would not have to use expensive and time-consuming paper ballots on Nov. 2.

If the challenge succeeds, the party would be knocked off an already-crowded Nov. 2 ballot.

It needs 17,874 signatures to be on the ballot, plus support in the Aug. 3 primary. About 2,000 of the signatures already have been found invalid through other challenges, party chairman Thomas Dennis said Tuesday.

The new challenge was filed by Michael W. Kerwin, deputy clerk of Detroit, and Orville Tungate, chief deputy Wayne County clerk, along with clerks from Brownstown, Northville and Huron townships.

Tungate called the challenge a "double precaution" to make sure the state would not have to use paper ballots, which would create long lines and hurt the major parties most severely.

Those long lines, he said, could "disfranchise 100,000 to 200,000 voters," particularly Democrats. Tungate and three of the other clerks are Democrats, while one is a Republican.

The legislature passed and Gov. William Milliken signed a bill several weeks ago aimed at limiting the number of parties by making it more difficult to get on the ballot.

SAUGATUCK EXCHANGE

Phone Firm Offers 'Life Line' Service

SAUGATUCK — General Telephone company has announced it is now offering a special limited one-party residential telephone service called "Life Line" in its Saugatuck exchange.

The new service is designed for those who make very limited use of their telephone, but who want basic service available because of security, emergency or other limited uses, according to John VerBeek, division manager.

Life Line is a one-party service limited to 30 calls per month at a rate of $2 less than the regular one-party service rate in the exchange. In the Saugatuck exchange, the Life Line rate will be $7.20 per month. Additional local calls over 30 will cost 10 cents each.

General Telephone says it anticipates having the Life Line service available through all of its exchanges by the end of the year.

Today In History

Today is Wednesday, June 9, the 161st day of 1976. There are 205 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1846, the Norwegian Army surrendered to the Germans in World War Two.

On this date: In the year 68, the Roman emperor, Nero, committed suicide.

In 1800, the Austrians were defeated by the French in the Battle of Montebello in Italy.

In 1815, the Congress of Vienna ended after dealing with the territorial and governmental problems resulting from the Napoleonic wars.

In 1870, the English writer, Charles Dickens, died.

In 1967, Gamal Abdel Nasser resigned as President of Egypt after his country was defeated in a war with Israel.

In 1971, the United States and Japan announced final agreement on terms for the return of Okinawa to Japan.

Ten years ago: An agreement was reached in a two-day strike by 20,000 Western Union employees, which disrupted telegraph service throughout the country.

Five years ago: A Soviet ship was seized in San Francisco as security for a $477,000 lawsuit filed by a Massachusetts firm which claimed that Soviet trawlers in the Atlantic had damaged lobster fishing equipment.

One year ago: The Philippines established diplomatic relations with Communist China, breaking its ties with the Nationalist government on Taiwan.

Today's birthdays: World Bank President Robert McNamara is 68. Actor Robert Cummings is 66.

Thought for today: It is easy to be wise after the event—an English proverb.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, small tenant farmers in Loudon County, Virginia, petitioned the Continental Congress in Philadelphia for relief, pointing out that they were destitute because their most important money crop, wheat, had lost its foreign markets.

SWEETS AND TARTS

Traverse Cherry Losses Go Higher

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. (AP) — Up to two-thirds of Northern Michigan's sweet cherry crop may have been lost because of cold May weather.

George McManus, agricultural extension service director in Grand Traverse County, made the estimate this week. He said the cold also wiped out about one-third of the area's tart cherries.

McManus said losses of the tart variety were due almost entirely to frost while those involving sweet cherries stemmed from a lack of pollination.

Earlier, agricultural officials predicted losses to the Northern Michigan cherry crop would hit 20 per cent.

Spot checks indicate even heavier cherry crop losses were incurred in southern Lower Michigan.

Nationally, sweet cherries have not been reported hit hard but the tart crop is described as generally poor.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture is to release its first nationwide estimate of the cherry crop for this season on June 23.
